SENATE AUTHORIZES PROBE OF HOTEL BILL

TO INVESTIGATE IRREGULARITIES SAID TO EXIST

Two Resolutions on Matter Cause Delay—Allege Bad Faith

FOUTS BILL LOSES

Measure Would Amend Present "Blue Sky Law" of the State

Columbus, March 21.—Senator Chappelear's resolution naming Senators Garver and Burch, Republicans, and Gardiner, Democrat, as members of an investigating committee to probe alleged irregularities concerning Senate Bill 162, was passed by the Ohio senate by a vote of 27 to 0. Senator Burch will be chairman of the probe committee.

The Cuyahoga delegation, with the exception of Senator Bender, and Senators Burch, Garver and Kumler, did not vote. The vote was taken after the rules had been suspended.

Before the Chappelear resolution was reported out, the senate by a vote of 23 to 5 refused to approve a motion by Senator Burke of Elyria asking the rules committee to report immediately on Senator Bender's resolution, providing for appointment by the lieutenant governor of investigators.

The main difference between the two resolutions was in the method of appointing investigators.

Senate Bill 162 limits liability and responsibility of hotel keepers for property of their guests.

The public health committee of the senate reported out and recommended for passage a bill by Senator Bragg, compelling applicants for marriage licenses to submit to a physical examination. A certificate stating that the applicant has submitted to and passed the examination must be filed 15 days before the issuing of the license, under provisions of the bill. Any reputable physician or a member of the state board of health can conduct the examination. A similar bill, introduced recently in the house, was killed in committee.

The House by a vote of 41 to 61 defeated the Fouts bill to amend the present "blue sky law" so as to give the state greater control over sale of worthless securities and eliminate the present requirement of certification of stocks offered for sale. The bill was defeated by the rural members and Democratic minority. The Ohio Farm Bureau Federation opposed the bill because it repealed the required certification of stock. The Fouts bill embodied many suggestions made by the Cleveland Chamber of Commerce.

Former Governor W. L. Harding, of Iowa, addressing a joint session of the Senate and House, urged active financial support of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence deep waterway canal project. He said that "exports greater than pass through the Panama Canal one way in year," give Ohio a vital interest in the proposed sea route to the Great Lakes.'

DR. CHARLES ELIOT IS 90 YEARS OLD

Cambridge, Mass., March 21.—President Emeritus Charles W. Eliot, of Harvard University, beginning his ninetieth year today in good health, found time between congratulations to give a few words of advice to those who would do likewise.

EXPANSION POLICY OF ROAD DEVELOPS

Cleveland, March 21.—Further evidence of the new policy of expansion, adopted by the Van Sweringen interests since they took over control of the Chesapeake and Ohio was seen today in the announcement that directors of Chesapeake and Ohio, at their regular monthly meeting here yesterday, had authorized the purchase of 2,000 seventy-ton coal cars.

Announcement of the purchase was made last night by W. J. Harahan, president of the C. and O., just before he boarded a train for Richmond, Mr. Harshan, in making the announcement simply said it "was in line with the general program of expansion," and declined further comment.

PREFERS LIFE IN PRISON TO DEATH

Canton, O., March 21.—Life, though it be behind prison bars at Columbus penitentiary for the rest of his existence after all is sweeter than death in the electric chair, Joseph Ferry, 23, Spanitrd, decided after a night of cogitation.

Ferry recently pleaded guilty to the charge of first degree murder, for the slaying of Mrs. Elizabeth Rich and her son Dan, and wounding of two others. Under the statutes of Ohio, Judge Krishbaum accepted the plea but it was necessary for the court to make a complete investigation and take testimony on behalf of the prisoner. He was permitted to take his choice of the electric chair or imprisonment for life.

HARDING PLANS WESTERN TOUR DURING SUMMER

Announcement That he Will Be Candidate Makes Arrangements Necessary

MRS. HARDING IS ILL

Suffers Attack of Trouble Which Nearly Cost Her Life Last Fall

Vere, Fla., March 21.—Secluded once more aboard his houseboat, President Harding spent considerable time today going over with his adcisers the tentative plans that have been made for his western tour this summer.

The announcement of his candidacy to succeed himself, made by Attorney General Daugherty, has made it imperative that plans which have merely been talked about for some weeks, be now put in definte shape.

The condition of Mrs. Harding caunsed concern to members of the presidential party today. The streauousity of her stayin Miami taxed the strength of Mrs. Harding somewhat, and she has experienced a slight recurrence of the illness that proved almost fatal last September, Absolute rest and quiet have been prescribed for her for the duration of the trip, with no more receptions and social engagements, such as featured her stay in Miami.

Should her condition become more aggravated, the presidential vacation will be cut short, but members of the party did not anticipate today any such contingency.

The houseboat Pioneer left this point this morning after spending the night at anchorage two miles above here.

The president planned to play golf at Melbourne today and continue his cruise northward to St. Augustine at its conclusion. Present indications are the houseboat will reach St. Augustine late Friday.

GIRLS TESTIFY AGAINST CHIEF; ASK FOR PROBE

Investigation of House of David May be Ordered By Legislature

Grand Rapids, Mich., March 21.—Former girl members of the House of David, who are revealing in federal court here almost unbelievable stories of alleged mistreatment by "King" Benjamin Purnell, were being closely guarded today following reports that their lives have been threatened.

That threats against the lives of girl witnesses in John W. Hansel's suit for $80,000 against the House of David have been repeatedly made was dramatically revealed by Mrs. Hazel Wuerth, who testified she had been misused by Purnell for four years before he suddenly ordered her to marry a man of his choice.

Night sessions are to be held in an effort to speed the trial along.

Hilda Pritchard, of Chicago, who was brought from Australia by her parents when she was 13 years old and taken to the House of David colony, swore Benjamin attempted to "frame" a girl he had abused by involving her with another man.

Lansing, Mich., March 21.—A resolution demanding state investigation of the House of David was before the joint rules committee of the Michigan legislature today. It will be reported back Friday. The House of David, a religious colony at Benton Harbor, Mich., has been under fire for several years and at present is being sued for $80,00 by John Hansel, a former member.

PANAMA CANAL RAZED ON PAPER

Balboa, March 21.—The Panama canal was theoretically destroyed yesterday by an attack from the combined American sea forces. The battle fleet, supported by destroyers and aircraft, established a base at Port Culebra, Costa Rica, from which the bombing planes could have easily put the canal out of commission, experts declared. In a frontal attack battleships stood well out of the range of the guns on the canal fortification and "shelled" the Miraflores locks. Admiral Jones, commanding the fleet, immediately recommended to the navy department that Toboga island, belonging to Panama, be acquired and equipped with 16-inch guns to hold off enemy ships and that the canal be equipped with a formidable force of aircraft and submarines.

PENALTIES IN LIQUOR CASES OVER MILLION

Large Amount Collected In Fines in Ohio During Last Month

AGENT GIVES REPORT

Two Hundred and Fifty Cases Prosecuted In State In February

Columbus, March 21.—J. R. Russell, federal prohibition director for Ohio, today stated that federal dry agents in Ohio prosecuted 250 cases involving prohibition violators last month; that fines totalled $75,150; taxes assessed aggregated $86,726.81 and penalties amounted to $106,608.95.

"A dozen injunction cases have been prosecuted, several of them in Cincinnati and the places ordered closed," said Director Russell. "Twelve defendants were tried for conspiracy, the trials resulting in conviction of eight of them. Five were sentenced to terms in the Atlanta penitentiary—the sentences being for one year and a day, or two years, and a fine of $5,000. The three defendants received jail sentences of from one to four and a half months. It developed during the trial that three other persons were actively engaged in the conspiracy.

"Ohio newspapers with few exceptions, are standing squarely for the enforcement of prohibition," declared Russell. "In most Ohio cities and counties there is splendid co-operation by all law enforcement agencies. Courts and juries take the same attitude in liquor cases as in other cases.

ALLEGED TAX FRAUD COMES TO LIGHT IN TRAIN CONVERSATION

New Yoirk, March 21.—A casual conversaton between passengers in a western pullmn car a year ago, which was overheard by a federal revenue agent, led to an investigation which resulted in the filing in the federal court of an equity income and excess profits tax suit for $1,790,842.44 with interest from 450 individuals and corporations in the United States and Canada.

The defendants were stockholders in the Warren Realty and Development Company of Arizona which, Assistant Federal Attorney House said today was sold in April 1917, for $2,202,000. The government claimed the properties, largely Arizona copper mine claims were acquired for a little more than $550,000 and that the company's 1917 tax return failed properly to sho wthe profit resulting from the sale.

Discovery of the alleged tax fraud, the government attorney declared, was made by a field agent of the Internal Revenue service, who during the course of a conversation in a western pullman car, overheard details of the sale of the Arizona company and made a report which formed the basis of the subsequent inquiry.

MINERS' UNION SCORED BY COURT

Huntington, W. Va., March 21.—Use of the "check off" system to unionize open shop coal mines was enjoined in a decision handed down by Federal Judge George W. McClintic. The restraining order prohibits the international organization of the United Mine Workers from sending money into West Virginia for organization purposes and enjoins the miners' union from "doing or causing anything to be done towards calling a strike."

The case was brought in the name of the Carbon Fuel company and 22 other mining companies against the international organization of the miners' union. Any union act which would interfere with production of coal or the employment of workers is prohibited by the order.

NATION'S COSMETIC BILL 50 PER CENT MORE THAN COLLEGE ENDOWMENTS

Cincinnati, Ohio, March 21.—The American public last year spent 50 per cent more for cosmetics, face powder and perfume than the total accumulated endowments of American colleges and universities, according to Dr. Ralph E. Heilman, dean of the college of commerce at Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois, speaking before the Chamber of Commerce forum here last night.

The expense for vanity was $750,000,000 and the ice cream and candy total for 1922 was $600,000,000, while accumulated donations to the cause of American higher education amounted to but $500,000,000, the dean said.

The chewing gum bill for the year was placed at $50,000,000.

STREET QUARREL BETWEEN WOMEN IS MURDER TIP

Jealous Woman Said To Figure in Death of Beautiful Model

New York, March 21.—A street quarrel with a jealous woman in which the young model was pummeled, and scratched, preceded by a week the murder of beautiful Dorothy King, "butterfly of the bright lights," whose mysterious death has thus far baffled New York's trained investigators.

Detectives centered on that information today as offering another possible clue, of which there have been such a vast confusion leading only into blind trails.

The woman who quarreled with the slain model may have been the wife whose husband Dorothy won away. The police will not divulge her identy, however.

At any rate, after this quarrel, Dorothy King drew the cloak of dread closer about her and always after that took a bodyguard with her when she ventured out of her gilded cage.

NEW RECORD MADE BY PIGGLY-WIGGLY

New York, March 21.—Trading in Class "A" common stock of Piggly Wiggly stores inc., was suspended by the board of governors of the New York Stock Exchange after one of the most violent price fluctuations in stock exchange history. The stock closed Monday night at 72, opened Tuesday morning at 75, dropped to 74 1-4 and then rose perpendicularly to 124, often jumping several points between sales. From the high point it dropped also perpendicularly to 82 where it closed at a net gain of 10 points on the day.

Jesse L. Livermore, famous stock market operator, who had been engaged last December by Clarence Saunders of Memphis, Tenn., president of the company, to maintain a market for the stock, issued a statement last night saying that Mr. Saunders had abruptly terminated Mr. Livermore's authority to act for him at 11 o'clock yesterday morning and that he (Livermore) had immediately canceled orders in the market and ceased operating in the stock.

While comment was withheld during the day by Mr. Saunders, it was reported that he had decided to "squeeze" the short interest by calling for the delivery of 42,900 shares of the stock which had been sold "short" through the local and Chicago markets.

EXPECT BATTLE TO DEATH WILL INVOLVE WHITES

Outbreak Which Costs One Life Follows Trial of Two Indians

ARE WELL ARMED

Old Pose, Famous Fighter and War Leader is Chief of the Group

Monticello, Utah, March 21.—Surrounded in a dense and rocky woods four miles from Blanding a band of Piute Indians led by Old Posey famous fighter and leader of the last big Indian battle seven years ago, were early today at bay and prepared for what was expected to be a battle to the death.

Already the miniature uprising has cost the life of one Indian, resulting in the wounding of two others and it is feared will end in death for at least some whites before the band now surrounded near Blandin is captured or killed.

The inception of the trouble came last Saturday when two Piutes, who had been giving the people of this county much concern by petty offenses for some years, were arrested, charged with the looting of a sheep camp and intimidation of the hearders.

The Indians, "Bishop Boy" and "Dutchess" were found guilty of petit larcency at their trial.

When Sheriff Oliver got on his horse and told them to come to dinner "Bishops Boy" resisted. A fight ensued ,the Indian shooting the sheriff's horse from under him with the sheriff's gun.

Other Indians at the trial evidently had concealed weapons and joined the fugitives.

When a posse caught up, several Indians were with the fugitives and all had high power rifles. They shot one horse from under a deputy and put two bullets through the clothes of another.

The posse surrounded the Indians, numbering more than a dozen, and a long fight was kept up till night.

A courier was sent to Monticello for long range rifles. When he returned the battle was resumed, continuing for two hours. In the fighting "Bishops Boy" was killed and two other Indians wounded. The Indians then retired to the woods, in which they now are surrounded.

"Old Posey," their leader, is a famous fighter of a band that has been more or less a terror to Mormons of this section, for years He and "Old Poke" figured prominently in the Chief Tsenatat fight when the government took Tsenatat to Denver for trial.

No hopes were entertained her for surrender of the other Indians until "Posey" is disposed of.

Other members of a tribe came into town and are being held under heavy guard until the fight is over for fear some might join their people.

More guns have been sent to Blandin where the trial was held, to patrol the town in case of an outbreak, but latest reports were to the effect that the situation is well in hand.

The county attorney called on the governor of Utah for an airplane but the order now probably will be countermanded.

INNOCENT BUT SERVES 25 YEARS BEHIND BARS

Cherokee Indian Pardoned by President After It Is Proved That He Did Not Commit Murder With Which He Was Charged.

Washington, March 21.—President Harding has granted a pardon to Charner Tidewell, a half-breed Cherokee Indian, who served 25 years in the Atlanta federal prison for a murder he did not commit, it was announced at the department of justice today.

Tidewell was finally vindicated by the deathbed confession of the widow of Jim Brown, the man who he was charged with killing. Applications for a pardon for Tidewell had been rejected by President Roosevelt, Taft and Wilson before an investigation of the case was started by Attorney General Daugherty.

Tidewell was only seventeen years old when he entered prison. All appeals for clemency had been denied until recently Mrs. Brown stated as she was dying, that it was her lover, (who later became her second husband) who was the actual murderer.

Mrs. Brown had been indicted jointly with Tidewell, but she was acquitted.

Brown was killed at Tallequan, Indian Territory, now Oklahoma, on June 17, 1899. Mrs. Brown's confession absolving Tidewell was followed by another confession by the son of the murdered man, whose testimony helped to convict Tidewell, the Department of justice said.

Tidewell now released from prison, returned to Oklahoma to find himself a millionaire. Since his imprisonment he inherited oil lands of tremendous value. A group of women, headed by Miss Alice Robertson, former Oklahoma representative in congress, was active in having Tidewell liberated.

Atlanta, Ga., March 21.—Considerable damage to fruit crops in southern states was feared today in the wake of the cold snap which gripped this section for 24 hours.

Cincinnati, O., March 21.—A police detective, posing as a chemist, late yesterday aided in the springing of a trap that resulted in the arrest of three alleged vendors of habit forming narcotics estimated to be worth $1.100.

William Sweeney, with three other plain clothes men and a federal agent, visited the hotel occupied by the trio, where Sweeney was introduced by the government operative as "Dr. Anderson," without whose analysis he would refuse to purchase the drugs offered for sale.

The alleged narcotic vendors were registered at police headquarters as Marshall A. Cannon, 36, Newport, Ky.; William Gaines, 24, Cincinnati, and Dixon Armitage, 27, Lexington, 27, Lexington, Ky. All were held for federal officials.

Third is Arrested Following Raid on Soft Drink Parlor In Illinois City Late Tuesday Night.

Grantie City, Ills., March 31.—Two unidentified bandits were slain and a third is believed under arrest today in a holdup of a soft drink parlor here shortly before midnight last night. The bandits were shot and killed by Walter S. Nichols, proprieter of the drink parlor.

Nichols was wounded in the hand, during the exchange of shots.

One of the bandits was slain as he bent over the money safe which Nichols was compelled to open, the latter told police.

Nichols seized a concealed revolver during the holdup, fired three bullets into the body o fthe bandit at the safe, wheeled and mortally wounded a second who was holding up four customers and shot the hat from a third bandit who fled.

A bareheaded man was arrested by St. Louis police this morning on the Mississippi River bridge.

THREATS OF USE OF "CASTOR OIL" MADE BY ITALIAN FASCISTI TO NON-MEMBERS

New York, March 21.—Threats of the use of "castor oil," the punishment devised by the Fascisti in Italy against their enemies, have been used by the Fascisti organizations established in the United States, against Italians, who declined to join the movement.

The following is an excerpt from a Fascisti organ "Le Torche Candine," published in New Haven, Conn.,

"A Fascisti agent," assures us that all the members are enthusiastic and that he has informed the miracle of securing the support of two men who were easily converted by the simple threat of a small dose of castor oil.

A "castor oil" law is urged by La Gazetta Del Massachusetts, published in Boston, in the handling of undesirables.

One of the aims of the Fascisti in the United States are explained by Ario Flamma, editor of the Fascisti organ "Il Vaglio," published in Wilkes Barre, Pa., follows:

"Would it not be an absolute necessity to start Fascismo in our colonies in order to fight criminality, filth and illiteracy by compelling unity, the end of all jealousies by upholding Italian candidates and summary punishment of all foreigners who talk and write against Italy.

"Young men with courage and faith are wanted, young men who have the greatness of the Roman race at heart, who are ready to fight and sacrifice themselves. Who will join us.

"Li Vaglio issues the challenge."

In the densely populated Italian quarters in New York, the Fascisti hymn is being circulated by the Fascisti. A literal translation of the opening lines is:

"With the dagger and the bomb,
"In a life of terror
"When the shell bursts our hearts does not tremble.
"We'll lead in the attack,
"We'll throw ourselves on the enemy,
"Armed with dagger and bomb,
"And in his blood will drown him."

In the meantime a bitter factional fight has broken out among the Fascisti organizations over the unquestioning unlimited and absolute obedience demanded by the Fascisti board in Rome.

One faction maintains that the iron discipline and orders of the Italian Fascisti should be followed, the other asserts that to follow the Fascisti orders literally means to renounce all citizenship activities because section five of the bylaw of the Fascisti board reads as follows:

"The Fascisti in foreign lands should not take part in the internal affairs of the countries in which they live; and they should demonstrate on all occasions the high spirit of the discipline of the Italians."

The objection to this clause is led by L'Opinione, a conservative Fascisti paper published in Philadelphia.

SOCIALISM'S FIRST MOVE IN MEASURE

London March 21.—Philip Snowden, Labor member of parliament, presented in the house of commons a bill to provide for nationalization of land in Great Britain and abolition of private property. The bill was formally read for the first time. Snowden said he would introduce in the house a resolution proposing gradual supercession of the "capitalistic system of government by an industrial and social order based upon public ownership and democratic control."

Conservatives and Liberals will offer amendments to this opening drive on socialism, the first in the history of England to be made in parliament, and the resolution appears certain to be defeated.

Spring will now hold sway until June, when summer does its turn. With Easter less than two weeks away, spring will have but short time to prepare for that occasion in providing the best kind of weather available for the Easter parade.

A Steel Bodied Range with MALLEABLE FITTINGS
That has no Peer

Every inch of the inside flue surface and the entire malleable iron top of the SOUTH BEND MALLEABLE is given a thorough Bower-Barff rust-resisting treatment at intense heat which fuses the treatment right into the pores of the metal and is not to be compared with the thin coating or plating processes used by many firms. We have spent years of time and thousands of dollars in experimenting to find a genuine rust-resisting treatment and our Patent Bower-Barff process is the greatest known preventive against the action of rust and creosote in range bodies and tops. The rust-resisting flues alone on the SOUTH BEND MALLEABLE make our range double the value of any other. Think what it means to own a range whose flues will resist the action of dampness, creosote and rust.

REGULATE THE HOT AIR AND HUMIDITY OF LIVING ROOMS.

The "Gas Magazine" has a good deal to say about the proper way of regulating the atmosphere of our living rooms. We make some extracts from a long article, as follows:

Overheating houses and public buildings in the United States not only wastes approximately 30 per cent of the coal used for this purpose, but is the fundamental cause of our traditional susceptibility to winter colds. Winter colds are serious because they lead to more serious diseases. Keep the humidity always at least above 50 per cent. There is no automatic way of keeping the humidity so high except by the use of special steam valves in a steam-heating apparatus, or by the use of an automatic water supply in a hot-air heater. Both of these devices are on the market, although they are little known. If you cannot utilize either of them, you must keep a kettle of water boiling on the stove, or keep a large cloth thoroughly dampened behind the radiator, or keep a large pan of water within every hot-air register. The house will be amazingly more comfortable. Drafts will be pleasant and healthful, inseead of unpleasant and dangerous. You will have fewer colds. You will feel better in every respect—wider awake, more energetic, happier. You will save from 15 to 20 per cent of your coal, because you will enjoy a much lower temperature inside the house than you did last winter—it is the last few degrees of heating which are the hardest, the most expensive.

Pay more attention to what your wife thinks of the temperature, because she probably prefers a cooler house than her husband does. As Professor Lee says: "Woman possess a perpetual blanket of adipose tissue betwen her skin and her muscles which is usually less developed in men, and hence women are usually comfortable at a lower temperature. I have seen more than one happy home in danger of wrecking from this unfortunate difference. As a married man I am tempted to plead for great charity on the part of wives; as a physiologist I realize that a lower temperature is more healthful. Keep your air in motion (with an electric fan or slightly open windows.) With electric fans in use there would be fewer naps in churches."

WHAT WORLD DID SHE MEAN?

A young woman with bobbed blonde hair leaped from a New York ferryboat in midstream the other day crying, "I don't want any more of this world." Her last words were eloquent enough, but they raise the question in many minds, what world was she talking about?

Surely not the world of the young businesswoman, intent on her work, and striving for success. Nothing about that world to seek escape from in the icy waters of the Hudson. Certainly not the world of the young mother with her brood of healthy children, watching them grow up under her patient care and waiting patiently for the coming of honored manhood and womashood. Nor yet the world of the student, seeking the lamp of knowledge which lighteth others nor grows less. Here is a world in which millions live happily, and whose only regret is that they may not live in it always. Obviously the world referred to by this disillusioned young woman was not the world familiar to so many people.

"I don't want any more of this world." In new form it is the oldest cry in the world. The cry of a Cain suffering punishment greater than he can bear. The cry of the prodigal, sick of the husks of his own choosing. Incidents like this remind us that there are worlds of degradation and heartbreak, whose victims utter their little cry and disappear forever. But these are not the worlds most of us know about, and are only too happy to keep on living in.

OPPORTUNITY FOR YOUTH.

This land of ours has opportunity for the youth afforded by no other country in the world. If one questions this, let him read one or more of the numerous biographies written recently by and of men who came to this country to take their chano in making a place for themselves and being a blessing to mankind.

For instance, let him read "The Americanization of Edward Bok" (pub. Charles Scribners.) Let him read it. Why? Because thousands of other people are reading it. The famous editor of the Ladies' Home Journal was known to millions of Americans. He is perhaps one of the most successful journalists of this or any other generation. He came to this country from the Netherlands when a small child. He gave himself to the American opportunity with a zeal characteristic of the child of the foreigner. He worked. He studied. He proved himself trustworthy. He gained recognition. He made good at every task. Men confided in him. He became a man of intellectual powers whom others sought to help them at their great task. He came to his own as the editor of one of the most outstanding American journals. Under his direction it rapidly grew in circulation until it was read by multiplied millions. He became a national influence. He determined social customs and policies. The son of an immigrant became a man of national affairs, interpreting the ideals and standards of pure Americanism to the satisfaction of all thoughtful men. Indeed, he created standards and interpreted them to the public.

Then came the time for his retirement. He wrote his autobiography. It proved to be rich in interest. People everywhere sought to read it. Its Americanism, its honesty and modesty and frankness made a profound appeal. The nation was made better by it, while it is being read in every public library and at every fireside.

THE EARLY SPRING TRAINING FOR THE SEASON OF 1924

1903--Twenty Years Ago--1923

News was received in this city yesterday afternoon of a terrific explosion which occurred yesterday morning at King's powder mills and which caused the death of Alpheus Moon, who has a number of relatives in this city and county.

Mr. J. H. Harbine of Alpha, who has kept a record of the weather for a number of years, said today that he had a record of a warmer day in March than we are just experiencing. On Tuesday, March 24, 1894, his records show that the mercury in the thermometer reached 84 degrees while on March 18 of this year the mercury only reached 78.

Dandelions, spring beauties, garter snakes and other evidences of spring have been multiplying this week at the O. S. and S. O. Home.

BEAUTY CHATS

TOUCHING UP THE LIPS

Chapped lips are not necessarily a winter affliction, March winds are often more disastrous than February frosts to the girl with a sensitive skin.

Such a girl will need some sort of lip salve up to the very warm days of springs, indeed if the summer is very hot she will probably find that the sun will dry and chap her lips, as well as wet wind and winter cold.

Now the ordinary lip rouge may keep the skin from shapping but it has many disadvantages. The warmer the weather the more it shows up. Indeed there is never any way of disguising the fact that the lips have been touched with red. It comes off on the handkerchief or the table napkin, or it rubs against the veil of the hat, it leaves its scarlet mark against anything it touches. Besides, unless it is put on with more skill than 90 women out of 100 possess, it makes the face look make-up.

The lips vary so in color that it is almost impossible to match their exact tint, so consequently all our women go about with dark, medium or bright vermilion mouths, the three shades found in beauty shops, all of them tending to the conventional cupid's bow shape with a varying outter line of paler natural color lips. You may think I am over critical in saying this, but then it is my business, to be so, and if you yourself will observe as carefully as I you will see ho wtinted lips tend to monotony.

A Girl—"Bitter Aloes" is the name of an extract made from herbs that are extremely bitter.

As there is nothing in it that is harmful it is often used to paint under the tip of nails to break up the habit of biting them. A girl of 19 who is five feet two and half inches would be normal weight at 110 pounds.

Anxious—Bleach the freckles with lemon juice or an extract made from cucurbers. Freckles will always return if they are natural to your type.

J. M. C.—Cleansing cream is used to clear the pores in place of soap. In localities where the air is laden with soil that gets into the skin, it requires such a cream to keep it clean. The best time for such a cleansing is at night before retiring.

Remove the cream and close the pores by dashing cold water over the face and throat.

Tomorrow—Beauty by Suggestion.

MARCH WINDS

cause much discomfort and are the basis for disagreeable and dangerous colds. Spring colds should be cared for at once or they are liable to linger until warm weather.

SPRING ERUPTIONS

Keep nose passages free through daily use of Spunoint. Do not "dose" yourself with nauseous drugs or harmful narcotics. Dry air takes moisture from nose and throat and the irritated condition invites germs. Spunoint repels disease organisms, through keeping breathing passages moist and clear.

This is the season for boils and pimples. Begin using Spunoint the minute the skin becomes irritated. If the boil has formed, or pimples are in evidence, apply Spunoint as directed and secure immediate relief.

"Spunoint" is the ointment, that contains no drugs or narcotics. It combines mildness with quick restorative qualities. It goes to the root of all congestion and inflammation and dispels it.

Worker — The average life of men who labor with abrasives, as certain chemicals, etc., is rarely more than 40 or 50 years.

Little Bobbie—It is very true that mourning colors vary from what we accept as the conventional black, in other lands. In China it is white, in Egypt, yellow; in Turkey, blue; while kings and cardinals mourn in purple and violet. The ancients wore sackcloth.

Swimmer—The best temporary relief for a cramp when bathing is to stretch leg out to its fullest extent, bend up the toes and rub the knotted muscles hard.

Gigwip—You are wrong. The Baltic Sea is anything but a deep one. In point of fact, it is only 43 yards deep.

MRS. SARAH HARTMAN, COLUMBUS, O.

W. Fulton Street Woman Recovers From a Severe Case of Stomach Trouble.

Statements from local people telling what Ka-di-ok has done for them and expressing their gratitude are continually being received. Selected at random from a large number on file is the following from Mrs. Sarah Hartman, living at 30 W. Fulton Street Columbus, who says: "I have been a sufferer from stomach trouble for years, some times my stomach would become so weak that I could not take the lightest kind of food or even a sip or two of water or other liquid without it souring and causing me distress and suffering afterwards. I would become so weak that I could hardly take care of the simplest kind of housework. My inability to take proper nourishment caused me to become very nervous and discouraged. I read about Ka-di-ok and started to take it. My condition improved after the first day or two. I now have a good appetite and am eating anything that appeals to me without any bad effect afterwards. I have regained my former strength and take care of my housework without any fatigue. Ka-di-ok is a grand medicine and I am pleased to tell of my experiences with it."

Ka-di-ok can be obtained at Sayre & Hemphill's Drug Store, Xenia.

Today's Talk

Recompense

I have often wondered how life would turn out if there were no recompenses.

Tonight I looked into the face of one of the most wonderful moons I have ever seen.

I saw it first as it faced me, right in front, down the road where I was driving.

I was but a few blocks from the ocean and so I hurried to the water's edge.

There, rising just above the surface of the water, was a great orange ball. Slowly it floated into a nest of gray-white clouds that soon were silver tinted at their edges.

Then it took upon itself a bright lemon color and rose higher and higher in the sky.

Across the water the reflections grew in width and beauty until they were washed to my feet, dying in the dampened sand.

I turned and walked away. But I glanced back to see that wonderful moon gleaming through tall palms and lace-foliaged evergreen trees.

And this is the thought I took away: God gives us recompense for all we lose in this world, by paving the very path through which we walk with love and beauty.

I have an interest in every rose, every violet, every pansy, every river, every blade of grass, every bird song, every sunrise and every sunset every work of art and every effort that springs into life and being, no matter where.

Take the one who has played every card—for love—and lost.

Recompense can only come through giving, through putting the spirit and feeling of that which is missed in to something that inspires and endures for others—which, in turn, rebuilds him who has given.

Life cannot hand out the same gifts to all. They would not fit, anyway.

A Stubborn Cough Loosens Right Up

This home-made remedy is a wonder for quick results. Easily and cheaply made.

Here is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest soreness goes, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, croup, throat tickle, bronchial asthma or winter coughs.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you get a full pint—a family supply—of much better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Keeps perfectly and children love its pleasant taste.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its prompt healing effect upon the membranes.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

RADIO EXPERTS TO TAKE UP AIR TASK-TO DISTRIBUTE USE

Washington, March 21.—The air is overcrowded. So the radio experts of the government and the country at large are planning to redistribute it so as to give elbow room for everybody.

A group of a dozen experts are in session at the department of commerce trying to figure it out.

Failure of congress to enact the White bill, which passed the house, but was lostin the senate jam at the close of the session, has left it up to Secretary Hoover and his assistants to work out some form of voluntary regulation that will serve until congress meets again and adopts radio legislation.

The problems before the conference here are: Public use of wave lengths between 600 and 1,600 meters, now reserved exclusively for government stations; restriction of power used by certain high powered stations that tend to monopolize air channels; inter-communication and broadcasting on special wave lengths for colleges and universities; revision of broadcasting programs to eliminate non-essential and frivolous use of the air; point to point communication by government and commercial interests; elimination of interference by devices not used for radio communication; restriction of all services to exclusive use of wave lengths allocated; designation of silent periods for broadcasting and amateur stations; regulations for line radio (wired wireless); special methods for selective, secret or "noninterfering" radio communication; technical methods for reduction of interference.

The great problem is to accommodate the demand for short wave length distribution, so that the vast numbers of listeners can receive the entertainment programs and other material sent out by broadcasting stations in their local areas.

A technical engineer pointed out at the conference that there are 33 channels for radio telephone use in the wave bands of 360 down to 200 meter length, while there are only 15 channels in the range from 600 to 1,600 meters. So it is the shorter lengths that possess the greater possibilities for radio communication.

Radio in the past six months, it was stated, has passed from the fad stage into the realm of public necessity. There are 22,740 stations licensed by the bureau of navigation, which has supervision over radio communication. Of these, 17,683 are amateur stations, 3,558 commercial stations, 885 government stations and 614 special land stations. Included in the commercial stations are 588 for broadcasting. These figures give some idea of the radio development.

LIBERAL FACTIONS IN FAVOR OF UNION

London, March 21.—Liberal members of parliament in caucus in the house of commons voted 41 to 12 in favor of the reunion of the Liberal factions and the creation of a parliamentary committee, composed of Herbert Asquith, Sir John Simon, Lloyd George and Sir Alfred Mond, to outline the future policy for the house and make arrangement for united action.

In subsequent proceedings of the house there appeared to be a "fly in the ointment" of the Liberal reunion. Asquith made an attack on the old coalition government for not placing the documents in the Mesopotamia dispute before the house. Lloyd George answered by stating that the government had never been asked for them, whereupon Asquith retorted that a patriotic government would have produced them without being asked.

In the middle of the Mesopotamia debate there was a savage attack on oil grabs. Following a bitter debate in which the Liberals demanded that Britain clear out of Mesopotamia, the house by a vote of 258 to 158 agreed to an appropriation of £813,000 in addition to the £174,000,000 spent since the beginning of the British occupation.

TWO NEW BASEBALL LEAGUES PROPOSED

2ND GAME OF CITY SERIES DRAWS INTEREST WEDNESDAY

LeSOURD WINS LETTER ON WESLEYAN FIVE

LeSourd Wins Letter

Delaware Ohio, March 21.—The list of those who will be awarded basketball letters at Ohio Wesleyan University has been announced, William LeSourd 116 West Market Street, being one of the eight men. LeSourd has without doubt been the most consistent player on the team and at the same time the hardest fighter.

He played forward most of the season but he could play guard with equal success as was seen on the few times when he was off on his shooting and was pulled back to a guard position. Although he wasn't a flashy type of player, he was the most valuable man on the team, because his team-mates could always depend upon Bill being on the job.

At the beginning of the season, Coach Van Alstyne was confronted with the task of building a new team around one man, Captain Hubbard. With the exception of Guard Thomson, the rest of the team this year are sophomores. In spite of this handicap of inexperience, Ohio Wesleyan finished better than 500 per cent this season.

STAGE SET FOR SERIES
By Wones

The Famous Autos and the John Roan Post basketball teams will hook up in the second game of the city series Wednesday night at the Rink.

This game promises to be a thriller as there is little to choose between the two teams. The colored lads won the first game and are counting on taking the second contest and also winning the title of City Champs, but on the other hand the Autos are sure that they can turn the tables on Coach Mohr's warriors and they by so doing even up the series. Should the Autos cop this contest a third game will be necessary which will be held at the Rink, March 28. The Autos, who play in the City Basketball league at Dayton under the name of Elder and Johnson team defeated the North Side Merchants by a 21 to 13 score. Barlow and Harry Solimano starred for the Elders. Their passwork and basket shooting was high class. So this goes to show that the Autos are in the pink of condition and the Legion will have to exhibit the kind of ball that they showed when they handed the Pittsburgh Loendi a drubbing in order to take this game from Haller's athletes. The Famous Autos will lineup with Barlow and Joe Mark at the forwards, Harry Soliman at center and "Peck" Koehly and "Speck" Solowitz at the guards while "Moon" Koester will be in reserve.

The Legion will be without the services of "Wu Fang" Ward, who plays at guard and "Chink" Noel, who was seen at one of the front positions in last Wednesday's game. These two lads are fine players and the Legion will miss them very much but Coach Mohr has two other boys he says are just about as good. One of these lads is Willowite of Wilberforce, who starred on the football team the past season and the other player's name has not yet been announced. The Legion will have Winters and J. Anderson at the forwards Duff at center, Butler and Willowite at the guards while the other athlete will fill in some place.

There will be a preliminary between the Merchants, the city champs and the Xenia Chancellors, which team is made up of East High School players.

The Merchants will have Reutinger, Hendrickson, "Bob" Gegner, "Simp" Douthett, Witham, Baynard and other star performers in their lineup while the Chancellors will use Porter, H. Taylor, D. Ware, Smith J. Ware and B. Ware. With these kind of lads pitted against each other the fur is bound to fly. This game will get under way at 7:30 p. m.

The Auto-Legion game will be handled by L. Rachford of this city. The price of admission will be 55 cents for any seat in the Rink. The main event will start at 8:15.

Two Baseball Leagues Here?

That Xenia and Greene County baseball fans may be interested in two different baseball leagues to be operated in the county this summer is given assurance from the rumors that have been boiling off the stove league still.

Dopesters say that the Washington C. H. Athletics, Jeffersonville Tigers and a Greenfield team will compose the eastern trio of a semi-pro league, in which the Bayliffs of this city will also be invited to take part. The Wilmington Clintons and the Yellow Springs Athletics are expected to furnish the other teams in the proposed six-team loop.

While the semi-pros are getting together in this fashion, B. B. Bowermesiter, of Bowersville, who is making a consistent fight to place amateur league ball on a high plane in Greene County, and who sponsored the Zig Zag Community loop of last summef, is making an effort to get another circuit together for the coming campaign.

Bowermeister believes he will be able to swing Sabina and Milledgeville with Bowersville for the eastern half of the loop and is now seeking to find three teams in Greene County to represent the western half of the league. A team from Xenia, one from Springfield, and one either from Cedarville, Fairfield or Osborn, is now the hope of the league leader. Last year's Zig Zag loop created a whole lot of interest in the county inspiring an inter-community spirit of rivalry. This year an inter-county interest would be built up by a loop formed as outlined which would insure more general interest in the games. It is planned to schedule the contests on a half-season basis, so that the schedule would finish mid-season and a new schedule commence. The winners in each division would be entitled to play in the "world series" for the full league championship and the winner of that series might be pitted against winners of the other loop. The teams will play Sunday ball, the Saturday afternoon effort of last summer, not having been patronized.

Team managers interested in the proposed loop should write B. B. Bowermeister, at Bowersville or get in touch with the sport editor of this paper.

Holds Record

Milwaukee, Wis., March 21.—A. Atkinson of Milwaukee, today holds the record for the high three game bowling score. Atkinson, rolling with Clybourne Alley team of Milwaukee, in the American Bowling Congress tournament here, piled up a total of 735, his scores for the three games being 232, 258 and 245.

The previous high score was made by Willis Lundgren, of Chicago, at Toledo, last year, when he scored 727 in three games.

INSURANCE AND BONDS

Of All Obtainable Kinds Protect Deposits in The Buckeye. All Approved Safeguards Are Employed.

Blanket Bonds of Strong Surety and Insurance Companies protect us against losses through embezzlement, theft, dishonesty, misplacement, forgery, daylight holdup, burglary, messenger holdup, fire, explosion, windstorm, cyclone and tornado. Our registered mail is insured to the full value of its contents. We also have a blanket insurance policy covering all of our safe deposit boxes.

A continuous daily audit by our Company Auditor and his two assistants quickly detects errors and thereby tends to prevent irregularities. Besides this we have a weekly audit by a committee of three Directors and a monthly audit by another committee of three other Directors.

Outside of business hours our records and securities are further protected by modern time locks, electric vault alarms (connected with The American District Telegraph Co.) and two night watchmen. During business hours two police officers in uniform are on duty in our lobby.

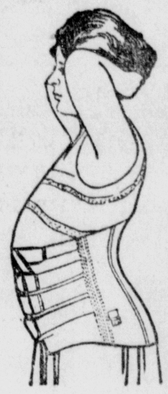

These safeguards all cost money but we earn enough to afford them. We would feel negligent without them.

LADY FITTER
Coming
TO HELP
Ruptured Women
DEMONSTRATES
FREE TO ALL

the Beckel Hotel, Dayton, Ohio, Wednesday afternoon and evening, March 21st, and all day and evening, Thursday, March 22d, also at the Gibson Hotel, Cincinsati, Ohio, Saturday, March 24th and Monday, March 26th, to demonstrate a new special corset attachment that holds any rupture no matter how large. Even if the abdomen is very fleshy, it holds any rupture with ease, comfort and security.

Special Combined Rupture and Corset Back Support.

Every woman who has been compelled to wear an ordinary truss or abdominal support knows the gouging, cutting and chafing caused by narrow bands. The weight of the abdomen or pressure necessary in holding the rupture must be carried by the band around the back, and the pressure is sometimes very great, causing untold suffering. The special, broad supporting corset back distributes the pressure so as to do away with all cutting and chafing.

There are thousands of women who are in perfect misery because they cannot find anything that will hold their rupture and the abdomen at the same time. The appliances usually worn are hot, bulky, chafing and irritating. But this wonderful Combined Corset Back Support is light, flexible, durable and cool and fits the figure like a glove. It gives you a sense of absolute comfort and protection while at the same time greatly improving abdominal outlines.

Trusses in common use are not adapted to women and often do great harm. Women therefore, suffer more and are in greater danger from rupture than men, and all women, who have ruptures or who wear an abdominal support of any kind should not fail to call and see this wonderful Combined Corset Back Support. No description or illustration can fully convey the remarkable utility of this splendid Support. It must be seen; it must be put on to convince any woman that it was designed for her.

The Lady Fitter takes a large woman just as she is, all out of shape and unsightly, and by this remarkable Corset Support gives her a natural, neat, trim figure.

She will also give full instructions on how to handle and care for any rupture, large or small. She will show how to hold any kind of rupture from the simple groin and femoral to the large and difficult Navel and after Operation Ruptures, without chafing or squeezing, also how to wear the corset correctly.

Don't let this great opportunity get away from you. Don't continue to suffer the burden of rupture and truss wearing when it is so entirely unnecessary. Your call on this Lady Fitter is sure to prove one of the best things you ever did. She will be here only two days, then your opportunity will be gone. The fitting and demonstration are free. It don't cost you a penny to learn all about the Rice Method and the wonderful opportunity for help and cure it offers in your case. After demonstration you can purchase the Outfit required if you wish.

Call any time from 9 to 12 a. m., 2 to 5 p. m., or 7 to 9 evenings. Just ask at the hotel desk for the Rice Lady Fitter and she will do the rest.

Thin? Run-down? Sure Way to Get Right Weight

Increase Your Red-Blood-Cells. That's the Sure Way! S. S. S. Builds Blood-Cells; This Means Strength!

Do you know why insurance companies refuse to insure a great many men because they are under weight? Simply because to be under weight often proves low fighting-power in the body. It often means you are minus nerve-power, minus red-cells in your blood, minus health, minus energy, minus vitality. It is serious to be minus, but the moment you increase the number of your red-blood-cells, you begin to become plus. That's why S. S. S., since 1826, has meant to thousands of underweight men and women, a plus in their strength. Hollow cheeks fill out. You stop being a calamity-looker. You inspire confidence. Your body fills to the point of power, your flesh becomes firmer, the age lines that come from thinness disappear. You look younger, firmer, happier, and you feel it, too, all over your body. More red-blood-cells! S. S. S. will build them. Ladies and gentlemen, a peaky, bony face doesn't make you look very important or pretty, does it? Take S. S. S. It contains only pure vegetable medicinal ingredients. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores in two sizes. The larger size bottle is the more economical.

S.S.S. makes you feel like yourself again

ESTABLISH MYSTIC CULT WHERE KINGS HELD TRYST

Contemplation (left) and Throne in Temple

The famous Forest of Fontainbleau, near Paris, where ancient French monarchs held their trysts, now contains a beautiful temple of a new school of the occult, headed by a Greek mystic, and made up of a band of disciples of men and women which includes many of those famous in the old Russian Court and others from society life in England. Striving to live a secluded and simple life, they hope to attain "soul emancipation." Only those visitors who wish to join the cult are permitted to enter. They are received at a beautful villa, and if they convince the committee they are desirable they are enrolled as mmbers. Within the wood is a gorgeous temple for study and meditation, a unique amphitheatre, with rare carpets and rugs and pillows that will rival any other collection in the world.

NEW YORK GOVERNOR PREPARING WARM ANSWER TO FESS

Washington, March 21.—Governor Smith of New York is preparing a warm reply to the recent letter sent to him by Senator Fess. The New York World describes the governor's frame of mind as a result of the Fess letter as follows:

"If President Harding will invite Governor Alfred E. Smith to his White House conference of governors in April, when prohibition enforcement is to be discussed, Governor Smith will be glad to answer in person the letter of Senator elect Fess of Ohio assailing New York state for daring to ask Congress for light wines and beer.

"Pending formal receipt of such an invitation from the president, however, Smith will reply through the mails to Fess' communication and explain vigorously why New York demands modification of the Volstead act. Fess, it is known, is due to receive a rip-snorter from the governor.

"If President Harding, who has overlooked the governor of the nation's most populous state in his bid to the law enforcement pow-wow, asks Governor Smith to attend, the governor's address at Washington will it is promised, be a notable, even sensational contribution to the forensic controversy raging over the merits and demerits of the eighteenth amendment and its Volsteadian offspring. Incidentally it will give Smith a welcome opportunity to amplify the letter he is to write Senator Fess.

The Fess letter, declares the governor's spokesman, is not to be read merely in the light of a verbal passage between a governor and a U. S. senator representing opposite parties. Rather must it be regarded as a challenge from the natural mouthpiece of the dominant party in the nation to the most potential possibility of the Democratic presidential nomination in 1924, on a subject that may become the outstanding issue in the campaign next year.

IF BACK HURTS FLUSH KIDNEYS

Drink Plenty Water and Take Glass of Salts Before Breakfast Occasionally

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which helps to remove the body's urinous waste and stimulate them to their normal activity.

The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of good water—you can't drink too much, also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts. Take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they are no longer a source of irritation, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this; also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year. adv

YOUR KIDNEYS?

"Don't Treat Your Kidneys Rough," Warns Dr. Carey

Constant Flushing May Injure the Delicate Organism and Seldom Removes the Poisonous Deposits

Now that Dr. Carey, kidney and bladder specialist, has retired from active practice, he generously warns people that even the smallest symptoms of kidney trouble should have serious attention.

Backache, for instance, puffness under or specks floating before the eyes, heavy feet and dry skin, are also danger signals.

"Thousands die yearly because they neglect their kidneys," says Dr. Carey "and I feel upon retiring that I should tell all who even suspect kidney or bladder trouble about my Prescription No. 777, which, during my active practice, has cured thousands of all kinds of kidney ailments."

This prescription has been given to pharmacists generally throughout America and is dispensed by them under the name of Dr. Carey's Prescription No. 777, a name that every sufferer from kidney trouble should remember.

LAW VIOLATORS WILL GET LIMIT- LAWYERS SCORED

Cleveland, March 21.—Violators of federal prohibition laws found guilty by a jury before Judge J. M. Killitts will receive the limit of the law, he stated in open court today in a denunciation of lawyers who enter pleas of "not guilty" well knowing that their clients guilty as charged.

Sitting here in the trial of a large number of liquor law cases, Judge Killitts warned those guilty of law violations that they would at least save a lawyer's fee by admitting their guilt.

"I will impose the limit sentence upon every man found guilty by a jury in these cases," he said.

"I have no respect for an attorney who will come into this court and plead his client not guilty when he knows that client is guilty," Judge Killitts declared. "It disgusts me to listen to a lawyer plead for mercy for his client after he has been convicted, on the ground he has no money when the attorney already has collected all the money he can get from him."

Similar Cases Being Published In Each Issue.

The following case is but one of many occurring daily in Xenia. It is an easy matter to verify it. You cannot ask for better proof.

J. F. Mellage, shoemaker, 426 W. Second St., Xenia, says: "My back throbbed and ached constantly. Every time I stooped the least bit I got a stab of pain through my back that felt just like a knife cut. When I bent it was hard to straighten again, my back was so knotted up. Mornings I dreaded to get up, I was so stiff and lame. I easily tired and soon became very weak. My kidneys were too free in action and I had to get up several times at night to pass the secretions. Doan's Kidney Pills were so highly praised that I got some. I used about six boxes when I was absolutely cured of the backache and my kidneys again became normal."

RECOVER AUTOMOBILE STOLEN OVER YEAR AGO IN COLUMBUS

A year and one-half after the Essex touring car owned by Postmaster R. B. Hickman, of Wilberforce, was stolen, Harry Hocks, 28, colored, was arrested in Columbus and is being held in County Jail here charged with the theft. The arrest was made last Friday.

At the same time the automobile was recovered and turned over to The State Automobile Insurance Association the claim of Hickman having already been settled. Hock was arrested and the car recovered by George R. Ruder and R. D. Gatton, of the auto recovery bureau of the Columbus Police Department.

Ruder and Robert Pein, Ohio Manager for the State Automobile Insurance Association brought Hocks to this city Wednesday morning and turned him over to Sherriff M. Sharp. During the grilling in the sheriff's office, Hocks told several different stories, first incriminating William Walker, farmer at Wilberforce University, and later repudiating his story of Walker's guilt. He refused to confess, however, and was locked up pending a hearing.

Hickman's car was stolen October 15, 1921, at Wilberforce and no trace of it was found until last week, when Detectives Ruder and Gatton obtained information concerning Hock's alleged operations. Learning the whereabouts of the car and that Hocks intended to take it away, the detectives broke into the private garage where it was stored and confiscated it Hocks was arrested shortly afterward, and held in Columbus while police attempted to piece out the story of the theft. When the identity of the car and is movements since the theft was traced, Hocks was brought here to face an affidavit sworn out Wednesday by Hickman. Motor numbers and other identification marks had been changed, police say.

Walker was brought into the case when it was alleged that Walker's wife had signed the papers to procure license tags for the machine. Police say Hocks was attempting to throw the guilt on Walker and his wife. Mrs. Walker was questioned at her home in Wilberforce Wednesday while she was in bed under the care of a physician. he said Hocks told her the car was his but that he wanted her to apply for the license in order to prevent his mother from knowing he owned the machine.

Time of arraignment of Hocks has not been set.

POTATO IN SHAPE OF PERFECT HEART FOUND

A potato in the shape of a perfect heart is the remarkable find of Mrs. Eliza Ayres, 409 East Church Street.

Peeling potatoes for dinner Sunday, Mrs. Ayres found the heart-potato among other tubars she was preparing to cook.

The potato is not a local product but was found among potatoes Mrs. Ayres had purchased. Its shape requires no guess work or stretch of the imagination for it is cleverly perfect as if wrought by human hand.

Mrs. Ayres considers the potato a good omen. She has placed it on display in the window of the Tiffany Jewelry Store, South Detroit Street.

OLD NEIL HOUSE CEASES BUSINESS— WILL BE RAZED

Columbus, March 21.—After 84 years of accommodation, barring two years devoted to rebuilding a part destroyed by fire the night of the day Abraham Lincoln was elected to be President, November 6, 1860, the Neil House the Capital's oldest hotel, yesterday ceased doing business.

Wreckers soon will level it to make way for the erection of a huge modern caravansery which will carry historic name of its predecessor. A few old residents will cling to their rooms until the end of the week, when they wil wander out to seek other homes.

The ending the old regime, as it were, was marked by a public ceremony because of the deep interest displayed in the famous old inn by the residents of this city and vicinity. Many guests came from afar, politicians, merchants and men of affairs, to join in the exercises and bid farewell to the place that has been the scene of many attractions to them.

In the gathering the politicians of both parties predominated, as the hotel, ever since its erection, has been the headquarters of party conferences and of candidates and because under its roof more real state business has been transacted than in the Capitol across the street.

The General Assembly adjourney early to be present and Governor A. V. Donahey performed the symbolic ceremony of turning the key in the door, signifying the closing of the place.

Major Henry M. Neil, 91 years old, one of the owners of the property, the last direct descendant of the founder, was the guest of honor.

Howard Chandler Christy, artist, former Governor James E. Campbell, Speaker Hal H. Griswold, Lieutenant Governor Earl Bloom, Senator Nettie E. Loughead, of Cincinnati; James W. Faulkner, of the Cincinnati Enquirer, and others were introduced by Mayor James J. Thomas who presided, Thaddeus H. Brown Secretary of State, acted as Clerk and took upon a special register the names of the guests, which are to be placed in the cornerstone of the new edifice.

BUCKSKIN JOE IN PRAIRIE SCHOONER PAYS XENIA VISIT IN TRUE FRONTIER STYLE ENROUTE HOME

Boys, cast your glimmers over Buckskin Joe, the dog-gondest, travellinist white man that ever slung a leg over a pinto or cooked a slab of bacon over a brush wood fire.

Buckskin Joe and Mrs. Buckskin Joe, with a prairie schooner of the frontier type, a buck-board, four horses, two dogs and a lot of romantic atmosphere are doing a Bill Hart over the country, traveling in frontier style. They are camped for a few days on the property of the Barnet Lumber Company, at Hivling and Leaman streets.

Joe and his good wife arrived in Xenia Thursday afternoon from Wilmington, and are temporarily halting their trip here with the intentions of leaving Wednesday for Dayton and points north to eventuate in Detroit, Michigan. And the whole trip is the result of a wager which Buckskin Joe, in a moment of unguardedness and bravado, made with a fellow mortal in dear old Chi.

It seems that Joe, before he bet on Jimmy Cox, or whoever it was, used to do his stuff right regularly posing as a model for artists, who ran to western types of guant cowboys in hickory shirts gazing into the west with one hand shading the eyes and the other dexterously rolling a cigarette, while waiting for the mailman, or friend wife, or whoever else would happen to be paddling around the old dessert.

After nine long and trying years at this profession, Buckskin Joe made a wager, in which he guaranteed to travel 2,500 miles over these United States, riding horseback and carrying equipment that with his own weight, would make up 250 pounds. The trip has been carried out, being made in the form of a button hook, or corkscrew or some other obsolete implement of a forgotten period and Buckskin Joe and the Mrs. now have their faces and those of their wagons, horses and dogs turned homeward.

Oh yes, just a word about the horse. Buckskin Joe may not have had a pleasurable trip scaring up a button hook trail, but it will be remembered that Joe rode, while the horse, perforce, and probably out of habit, walked. And so this part of the story is about the horse. Bob, for that is our hero's name, is 16 years old and never been—anyway he's 16 years old. He is buckskin color, whatever that is, and weighs about 900 pounds, with his overcoat off.

So that's that.

ANN MAKES EXCUSES FOR DICK

CHAPTER 38

Always before, her heart full of pity Ann had at least partially undressed Dick, made him comfortable as she could.

But his mention of Grace, calling her "Sunbeam" hardened her, and she let him lie as he fell, not even loosening his collar; neither did she make any attempt to waken him, but after a bit put out the light and went to bed.

Hours later she hearded him stirring. He grumbled as he made a light and then undressed. The gray light of a morning that soon would be broad sunlight came in the window as he entered the room where she was a contented sigh escaping him as he settled down comfortably.

"I was pretty full last night, wasn't I?" he said with a sheepish grin when he appeared at breakfast.

"Thought you'd punish me by letting me sleep with my clothes on. Gee but I was stiff when I woke up. I thought I'd never get the kink in my neck straighten out."

He wasn't offended looked upon it as a joke, was gay as usual through breakfast, and played with Jack before he went out.

"He's so irresponsible!" Ann sighed as she went about her work. To test him she had asked him whom he saw the day before.

He remembered everyone ,told her the gossip about them, until he joined a certain man he knew to have his dinner and a drink. He told her vaguely that "crowd of fellows" joined them, but could give no names. He became so evidently annoyed that Ann desisted. Told him to "never mind."

"She had been tempted to speak to the doctor on one of his visits, to talk to him about this loss of memory that so disturbed her.

But her pride would not let her. She had been so careful to withhold his weakness from everyone.

But dreams do not die, and Ann still kept her dream of a happy future with Dick and her boy; a little faded perhaps not so clear in outline, but still there. At times when she sat alone the dream shone forth in her longing eyes.

Like many women of her temperament Ann preserved a sort of a remote and proud consciousness of her body, a physical reticence. This, contact with Grace had disturbed. While almost despising her for it, Ann realized that Grace used all her physical attractions to win Dick; that she played with sex as with a toy; that life to her was a game in which she freely used all the means at her command to win—like a good sport if she could, cheating if she felt it necessary.

And she was cheating now—cheating Dick, herself, Ann.

Dick was married, could be nothing that was honest to her; she was cheating herself by spending her time, her youth in her quest of him; she was cheating Ann of her faith in her husband, in life itself. She expected to make her own terms with Life, and so far it seemed Life had accepted them.

Grace had resumed her careless familiarity as if nothing had happened.

The first time she came over alone after Dick had laid aside his crutches, Ann had opened the door, and seeing who it was had stood stifly erect, not sure what to do. She turned on the threshold, looked at Dick who had not yet seen Grace, as if she were about to speak to him, but unable to find him with her eyes, she turned into the room followed by Grace who smiling nonchanantly, said gayly:

"Hello, Dick! I got lonesome for you, so walked all the way over. Ned was horrid this morning. He wouldn't let me have the car, and my horse went lame yesterday. My! But I'm tired!" she sank into a chair.

Ann tried to summon a pleasant expression to her face, but she achieved only a rather vague distortion. Dick offfended by it, said sharply:

"Aren't you going to lay a place for Grace, Ann?" They had been about to sit down to luncheon.

Without a word Ann did as requested, and Grace drew up to the table, eating heartily, laughing and chatting with Dick, who never noticed that Ann ate nothing at all.

The latter watched Grace, saw her use all her little airs and graces, felt that Dick was keenly aware of her, of the physical her, that she so boldly intruded upon him.

She touched him often, and after the meal was over made him give her his lighted cigaret, saying it tasted better because he had started to swoke it.

She looked charming, Ann had to admit. Her face glowed with life and color. She had on a fetching sport dress, stylish shoes, comfortable for walking, and a boy's hat that had sat saucily on her bobbed head lay on the chair beside her.

Ann felt suddenly old, washed out, tired out. Yet she was but a little older than Grace Edmunds; and had been called a beauty. Why was it? She knew it was not her work, although at times it was hard and wearing, it was because of her soul-tiredness, her fears, and anxieties she had aged. Grace was laughing, and in reply to something Dick said, replied:

"Never worry until worry worries you! I don't. You can't keep young and handsome, Dick, and fuss over things.

Come on lazy-bones! I'm going out in the orchard with you. I didn't walk all the way over here to sit in the house, even if Ann is a charming hostess."

Senator Burch will be chairman of the probe committee.

The Cuyahoga delegation, with the exception of Senator Bender, and Senators Burch, Garver and Kumler, did not vote. The vote was taken after the rules had been suspended.

Before the Chappelear resolution was reported out, the senate by a vote of 23 to 5 refused to approve a motion by Senator Burke of Elyria asking the rules committee to report immediately on Senator Bender's resolution, providing for appointment by the lieutenant governor of investigators.

The main difference between the two resolutions was in the method of appointing investigators.

Senate Bill 162 limits liability and responsibility of hotel keepers for property of their guests.

The public health committee of the senate reported out and recommended for passage a bill by Senator Bragg, compelling applicants for marriage licenses to submit to a physical examination. A certificate stating that the applicant has submitted to and passed the examination must be filed 15 days before the issuing of the license, under provisions of the bill. Any reputable physician or a member of the state board of health can conduct the examination. A similar bill, introduced recently in the house, was killed in committee.

The House by a vote of 41 to 61 defeated the Fouts bill to amend the present "blue sky law" so as to give the state greater control over sale of worthless securities and eliminate the present requirement of certification of stocks offered for sale. The bill was defeated by the rural members and Democratic minority. The Ohio Farm Bureau Federation opposed the bill because it repealed the required certification of stock. The Fouts bill embodied many suggestions made by the Cleveland Chamber of Commerce.

Former Governor W. L. Harding, of Iowa, addressing a joint session of the Senate and House, urged active financial support of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence deep waterway canal project. He said that "exports greater than pass through the Panama Canal one way in year," give Ohio a vital interest in the proposed sea route to the Great Lakes.'

DR. CHARLES ELIOT IS 90 YEARS OLD

Cambridge, Mass., March 21.—President Emeritus Charles W. Eliot, of Harvard University, beginning his ninetieth year today in good health, found time between congratulations to give a few words of advice to those who would do likewise.

"East moderately, sleep at least seven hours a night with windows open, take regular exercise in the open air ever day, use no stimulants, enjoy all natural delights without excess in any, and keep under all circumstances as serene a spirit as your nature permits' was the formula Dr Eliot gave.

EXPANSION POLICY OF ROAD DEVELOPS

Cleveland, March 21.—Further evidence of the new policy of expansion, adopted by the Van Sweringen interests since they took over control of the Chesapeake and Ohio was seen today in the announcement that directors of Chesapeake and Ohio, at their regular monthly meeting here yesterday, had authorized the purchase of 2,000 seventy-ton coal cars.

Announcement of the purchase was made last night by W. J. Harahan, president of the C. and O., just before he boarded a train for Richmond, Mr. Harshan, in making the announcement simply said it "was in line with the general program of expansion," and declined further comment.

PREFERS LIFE IN PRISON TO DEATH

Canton, O., March 21.—Life, though it be behind prison bars at Columbus penitentiary for the rest of his existence after all is sweeter than death in the electric chair, Joseph Ferry, 23, Spanitrd, decided after a night of cogitation.

Ferry recently pleaded guilty to the charge of first degree murder, for the slaying of Mrs. Elizabeth Rich and her son Dan, and wounding of two others. Under the statutes of Ohio, Judge Krishbaum accepted the plea but it was necessary for the court to make a complete investigation and take testimony on behalf of the prisoner. He was permitted to take his choice of the electric chair or imprisonment for life.

HARDING PLANS WESTERN TOUR DURING SUMMER

Announcement That he Will Be Candidate Makes Arrangements Necessary

MRS. HARDING IS ILL

Suffers Attack of Trouble Which Nearly Cost Her Life Last Fall

Vere, Fla., March 21.—Secluded once more aboard his houseboat, President Harding spent considerable time today going over with his advisers the tentative plans that have been made for his western tour this summer.

The announcement of his candidacy to succeed himself, made by Attorney General Daugherty, has made it imperative that plans which have merely been talked about for some weeks, be now put in definte shape.

The condition of Mrs. Harding caunsed concern to members of the presidential party today. The strenuousity of her stayin Miami taxed the strength of Mrs. Harding somewhat, and she has experienced a slight recurrence of the illness that proved almost fatal last September, Absolute rest and quiet have been prescribed for her for the duration of the trip, with no more receptions and social engagements, such as featured her stay in Miami.

Should her condition become more aggravated, the presidential vacation will be cut short, but members of the party did not anticipate today any such contingency.

The houseboat Pioneer left this point this morning after spending the night at anchorage two miles above here.

The president planned to play golf at Melbourne today and continue his cruise northward to St. Augustine at its conclusion. Present indications are the houseboat will reach St. Augustine late Friday.

GIRLS TESTIFY AGAINST CHIEF; ASK FOR PROBE

Investigation of House of David May be Ordered By Legislature

Grand Rapids, Mich., March 21.—Former girl members of the House of David, who are revealing in federal court here almost unbelievable stories of alleged mistreatment by "King" Benjamin Purnell, were being closely guarded today following reports that their lives have been threatened.

That threats against the lives of girl witnesses in John W. Hansel's suit for $80,000 against the House of David have been repeatedly made was dramatically revealed by Mrs. Hazel Wuerth, who testified she had been misused by Purnell for four years before he suddenly ordered her to marry a man of his choice.

Night sessions are to be held in an effort to speed the trial along.

Hilda Pritchard, of Chicago, who was brought from Australia by her parents when she was 13 years old and taken to the House of David colony, swore Benjamin attempted to "frame" a girl he had abused by involving her with another man.

Lansing, Mich., March 21.—A resolution demanding state investigation of the House of David was before the joint rules committee of the Michigan legislature today. It will be reported back Friday. The House of David, a religious colony at Benton Harbor, Mich., has been under fire for several years and at present is being sued for $80,00 by John Hansel, a former member.

PANAMA CANAL RAZED ON PAPER

Balboa, March 21.—The Panama canal was theoretically destroyed yesterday by an attack from the combined American sea forces. The battle fleet, supported by destroyers and aircraft, established a base at Port Culebra, Costa Rica, from which the bombing planes could have easily put the canal out of commission, experts declared. In a frontal attack battleships stood well out of the range of the guns on the canal fortification and "shelled" the Miraflores locks. Admiral Jones, commanding the fleet, immediately recommended to the navy department that Toboga island, belonging to Panama, be acquired and equipped with 16-inch guns to hold off enemy ships and that the canal be equipped with a formidable force of aircraft and submarines.

PENALTIES IN LIQUOR CASES OVER MILLION

Large Amount Collected In Fines in Ohio During Last Month

AGENT GIVES REPORT

Two Hundred and Fifty Cases Prosecuted In State In February

Columbus, March 21.—J. R. Russell, federal prohibition director for Ohio, today stated that federal dry agents in Ohio prosecuted 250 cases involving prohibition violators last month; that fines totalled $75,150; taxes assessed aggregated $86,726.81 and penalties amounted to $106,608.95.

"A dozen injunction cases have been prosecuted, several of them in Cincinnati and the places ordered closed," said Director Russell. "Twelve defendants were tried for conspiracy, the trials resulting in conviction of eight of them. Five were sentenced to terms in the Atlanta penitentiary—the sentences being for one year and a day, or two years, and a fine of $5,000. The three defendants received jail sentences of from one to four and a half months. It developed during the trial that three other persons were actively engaged in the conspiracy.

"Ohio newspapers with few exceptions, are standing squarely for the enforcement of prohibition," declared Russell. "In most Ohio cities and counties there is splendid co-operation by all law enforcement agencies. Courts and juries take the same attitude in liquor cases as in other cases.

ALLEGED TAX FRAUD COMES TO LIGHT IN TRAIN CONVERSATION

New Yoirk, March 21.—A casual conversaton between passengers in a western pullmn car a year ago, which was overheard by a federal revenue agent, led to an investigation which resulted in the filing in the federal court of an equity income and excess profits tax suit for $1,790,842.44 with interest from 450 individuals and corporations in the United States and Canada.

The defendants were stockholders in the Warren Realty and Development Company of Arizona which, Assistant Federal Attorney House said today was sold in April 1917, for $2,202,000. The government claimed the properties, largely Arizona copper mine claims were acquired for a little more than $550,000 and that the company's 1917 tax return failed properly to sho wthe profit resulting from the sale.

Discovery of the alleged tax fraud, the government attorney declared, was made by a field agent of the Internal Revenue service, who during the course of a conversation in a western pullman car, overheard details of the sale of the Arizona company and made a report which formed the basis of the subsequent inquiry.

MINERS' UNION SCORED BY COURT

Huntington, W. Va., March 21.—Use of the "check off" system to unionize open shop coal mines was enjoined in a decision handed down by Federal Judge George W. McClintic. The restraining order prohibits the international organization of the United Mine Workers from sending money into West Virginia for organization purposes and enjoins the miners' union from "doing or causing anything to be done towards calling a strike."

The case was brought in the name of the Carbon Fuel company and 22 other mining companies against the international organization of the miners' union. Any union act which would interfere with production of coal or the employment of workers is prohibited by the order.

NATION'S COSMETIC BILL 50 PER CENT MORE THAN COLLEGE ENDOWMENTS

Cincinnati, Ohio, March 21.—The American public last year spent 50 per cent more for cosmetics, face powder and perfume than the total accumulated endowments of American colleges and universities, according to Dr. Ralph E. Heilman, dean of the college of commerce at Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois, speaking before the Chamber of Commerce forum here last night.

The expense for vanity was $750,000,000 and the ice cream and candy total for 1922 was $600,000,000, while accumulated donations to the cause of American higher education amounted to but $500,000,000, the dean said.

The chewing gum bill for the year was placed at $50,000,000.

STREET QUARREL BETWEEN WOMEN IS MURDER TIP

Jealous Woman Said To Figure in Death of Beautiful Model

New York, March 21.—A street quarrel with a jealous woman in which the young model was pummeled, and scratched, preceded by a week the murder of beautiful Dorothy King, "butterfly of the bright lights," whose mysterious death has thus far baffled New York's trained investigators.

Detectives centered on that information today as offering another possible clue, of which there have been such a vast confusion leading only into blind trails.

The woman who quarreled with the slain model may have been the wife whose husband Dorothy won away. The police will not divulge her identy, however.

At any rate, after this quarrel, Dorothy King drew the cloak of dread closer about her and always after that took a bodyguard with her when she ventured out of her gilded cage.

NEW RECORD MADE BY PIGGLY-WIGGLY

New York, March 21.—Trading in Class "A" common stock of Piggly Wiggly stores inc., was suspended by the board of governors of the New York Stock Exchange after one of the most violent price fluctuations in stock exchange history. The stock closed Monday night at 72, opened Tuesday morning at 75, dropped to 74 1-4 and then rose perpendicularly to 124, often jumping several points between sales. From the high point it dropped also perpendicularly to 82 where it closed at a net gain of 10 points on the day.

Jesse L. Livermore, famous stock market operator, who had been engaged last December by Clarence Saunders of Memphis, Tenn., president of the company, to maintain a market for the stock, issued a statement last night saying that Mr. Saunders had abruptly terminated Mr. Livermore's authority to act for him at 11 o'clock yesterday morning and that he (Livermore) had immediately canceled orders in the market and ceased operating in the stock.

While comment was withheld during the day by Mr. Saunders, it was reported that he had decided to "squeeze" the short interest by calling for the delivery of 42,900 shares of the stock which had been sold "short" through the local and Chicago markets.

EXPECT BATTLE TO DEATH WILL INVOLVE WHITES

Outbreak Which Costs One Life Follows Trial of Two Indians

ARE WELL ARMED

Old Pose, Famous Fighter and War Leader is Chief of the Group

Monticello, Utah, March 21.—Surrounded in a dense and rocky woods four miles from Blanding a band of Piute Indians led by Old Posey famous fighter and leader of the last big Indian battle seven years ago, were early today at bay and prepared for what was expected to be a battle to the death.

Already the miniature uprising has cost the life of one Indian, resulting in the wounding of two others and it is feared will end in death for at least some whites before the band now surrounded near Blandin is captured or killed.

The inception of the trouble came last Saturday when two Piutes, who had been giving the people of this county much concern by petty offenses for some years, were arrested, charged with the looting of a sheep camp and intimidation of the herders.

The Indians, "Bishop Boy" and "Dutchess" were found guilty of petit larcency at their trial.

When Sheriff Oliver got on his horse and told them to come to dinner "Bishops Boy" resisted. A fight ensued ,the Indian shooting the sheriff's horse from under him with the sheriff's gun.

Other Indians at the trial evidently had concealed weapons and joined the fugitives.

When a posse caught up, several Indians were with the fugitives and all had high power rifles. They shot one horse from under a deputy and put two bullets through the clothes of another.

The posse surrounded the Indians, numbering more than a dozen, and a long fight was kept up till night.

A courier was sent to Monticello for long range rifles. When he returned the battle was resumed, continuing for two hours. In the fighting "Bishops Boy" was killed and two other Indians wounded. The Indians then retired to the woods, in which they now are surrounded.

"Old Posey," their leader, is a famous fighter of a band that has been more or less a terror to Mormons of this section, for years He and "Old Poke" figured prominently in the Chief Tsenatat fight when the government took Tsenatat to Denver for trial.

No hopes were entertained her for surrender of the other Indians until "Posey" is disposed of.

Other members of a tribe came into town and are being held under heavy guard until the fight is over for fear some might join their people.

More guns have been sent to Blandin where the trial was held, to patrol the town in case of an outbreak, but latest reports were to the effect that the situation is well in hand.

The county attorney called on the governor of Utah for an airplane but the order now probably will be countermanded.

INNOCENT BUT SERVES 25 YEARS BEHIND BARS

Cherokee Indian Pardoned by President After It Is Proved That He Did Not Commit Murder With Which He Was Charged.

Washington, March 21.—President Harding has granted a pardon to Charner Tidewell, a half-breed Cherokee Indian, who served 25 years in the Atlanta federal prison for a murder he did not commit, it was announced at the department of justice today.

Tidewell was finally vindicated by the deathbed confession of the widow of Jim Brown, the man who he was charged with killing. Applications for a pardon for Tidewell had been rejected by President Roosevelt, Taft and Wilson before an investigation of the case was started by Attorney General Daugherty.

Tidewell was only seventeen years old when he entered prison. All appeals for clemency had been denied until recently Mrs. Brown stated as she was dying, that it was her lover, (who later became her second husband) who was the actual murderer.

Mrs. Brown had been indicted jointly with Tidewell, but she was acquitted.

Brown was killed at Tallequan, Indian Territory, now Oklahoma, on June 17, 1899. Mrs. Brown's confession absolving Tidewell was followed by another confession by the son of the murdered man, whose testimony helped to convict Tidewell, the Department of justice said.

Tidewell now released from prison, returned to Oklahoma to find himself a millionaire. Since his imprisonment he inherited oil lands of tremendous value. A group of women, headed by Miss Alice Robertson, former Oklahoma representative in congress, was active in having Tidewell liberated.

POLICE DETECTIVE AS CHEMIST TRAPS THREE NARCOTIC PEDDLERS

Cincinnati, O., March 21.—A police detective, posing as a chemist, late yesterday aided in the springing of a trap that resulted in the arrest of three alleged vendors of habit forming narcotics estimated to be worth $1.100.

William Sweeney, with three other plain clothes men and a federal agent, visited the hotel occupied by the trio, where Sweeney was introduced by the government operative as "Dr. Anderson," without whose analysis he would refuse to purchase the drugs offered for sale.

The alleged narcotic vendors were registered at police headquarters as Marshall A. Cannon, 36, Newport, Ky.; William Gaines, 24, Cincinnati, and Dixon Armitage, 27, Lexington, 27, Lexington, Ky. All were held for federal officials.

FRUIT DAMAGED BY COLD IN THE SOUTH

Atlanta, Ga., March 21.—Considerable damage to fruit crops in southern states was feared today in the wake of the cold snap which gripped this section for 24 hours.

In middle Georgia, Alabama and South Carolina, except in coastal sections, the fruit in many places would be a total loss, agriculturalists declared.

Thousands of gallons of crude oil were rushed to fruit growing centers to enable farmers to keep smudge fires going. The temperature began rising today.

TWO BANDITS ARE DEAD IN ATTEMPTED HOLDUP

Third is Arrested Following Raid on Soft Drink Parlor In Illinois City Late Tuesday Night.

Grantie City, Ills., March 31.—Two unidentified bandits were slain and a third is believed under arrest today in a holdup of a soft drink parlor here shortly before midnight last night. The bandits were shot and killed by Walter S. Nichols, proprieter of the drink parlor.

Nichols was wounded in the hand, during the exchange of shots.

One of the bandits was slain as he bent over the money safe which Nichols was compelled to open, the latter told police.

Nichols seized a concealed revolver during the holdup, fired three bullets into the body o fthe bandit at the safe, wheeled and mortally wounded a second who was holding up four customers and shot the hat from a third bandit who fled.

A bareheaded man was arrested by St. Louis police this morning on the Mississippi River bridge.

THREATS OF USE OF "CASTOR OIL" MADE BY ITALIAN FASCISTI TO NON-MEMBERS

New York, March 21.—Threats of the use of "castor oil," the punishment devised by the Fascisti in Italy against their enemies, have been used by the Fascisti organizations established in the United States, against Italians, who declined to join the movement.

The following is an excerpt from a Fascisti organ "Le Torche Candine," published in New Haven, Conn.,

"A Fascisti agent," assures us that all the members are enthusiastic and that he has informed the miracle of securing the support of two men who were easily converted by the simple threat of a small dose of castor oil.

A "castor oil" law is urged by La Gazetta Del Massachusetts, published in Boston, in the handling of undesirables.

One of the aims of the Fascisti in the United States are explained by Ario Flamma, editor of the Fascisti organ "Il Vaglio," published in Wilkes Barre, Pa., follows:

"Would it not be an absolute necessity to start Fascismo in our colonies in order to fight criminality, filth and illiteracy by compelling unity, the end of all jealousies by upholding Italian candidates and summary punishment of all foreigners who talk and write against Italy.

"Young men with courage and faith are wanted, young men who have the greatness of the Roman race at heart, who are ready to fight and sacrifice themselves. Who will join us.

"Li Vaglio issues the challenge."

In the densely populated Italian quarters in New York, the Fascisti hymn is being circulated by the Fascisti. A literal translation of the opening lines is:

"With the dagger and the bomb,
"In a life of terror
"When the shell bursts our hearts does not tremble.
"We'll lead in the attack,
"We'll throw ourselves on the enemy,
"Armed with dagger and bomb,
"And in his blood will drown him."

In the meantime a bitter factional fight has broken out among the Fascisti organizations over the unquestioning unlimited and absolute obedience demanded by the Fascisti board in Rome.

One faction maintains that the iron discipline and orders of the Italian Fascisti should be followed, the other asserts that to follow the Fascisti orders literally means to renounce all citizenship activities because section five of the bylaw of the Fascisti board reads as follows:

"The Fascisti in foreign lands should not take part in the internal affairs of the countries in which they live; and they should demonstrate on all occasions the high spirit of the discipline of the Italians."

The objection to this clause is led by L'Opinione, a conservative Fascisti paper published in Philadelphia.

SOCIALISM'S FIRST MOVE IN MEASURE

London March 21.—Philip Snowden, Labor member of parliament, presented in the house of commons a bill to provide for nationalization of land in Great Britain and abolition of private property. The bill was formally read for the first time. Snowden said he would introduce in the house a resolution proposing gradual supercession of the "capitalistic system of government by an industrial and social order based upon public ownership and democratic control."

Conservatives and Liberals will offer amendments to this opening drive on socialism, the first in the history of England to be made in parliament, and the resolution appears certain to be defeated.

Spring has sprung.

The season sung in the ballads of the bards, was ushered onto the world's weather stage officially at 9.29 Wednesday morning.

The entrance was accompanied by more spring-like zephyrs than have been prevalent for several days. Although the sky was partly cloudy, the temperature was rising and the wind which was fairly strong, was fresh but not cold.

Spring will now hold sway until June, when summer does its turn. With Easter less than two weeks away, spring will have but short time to prepare for that occasion in providing the best kind of weather available for the Easter parade.

On the Plain Trim only, extra charge is made for White Enameled Splasher and Polished Top. On all models, smoke-pipe is concealed behind Splasher, giving more cooking space. Duplex Grate is adapted to soft coal, hard coal, coke, or wood, for fuel.

The Tappan-Joy is designed to give big service and no trouble. Special features like the Hot-All-Over Top, Sliding Damper and roomy Oven make kitchen work easier and cooking more pleasant.

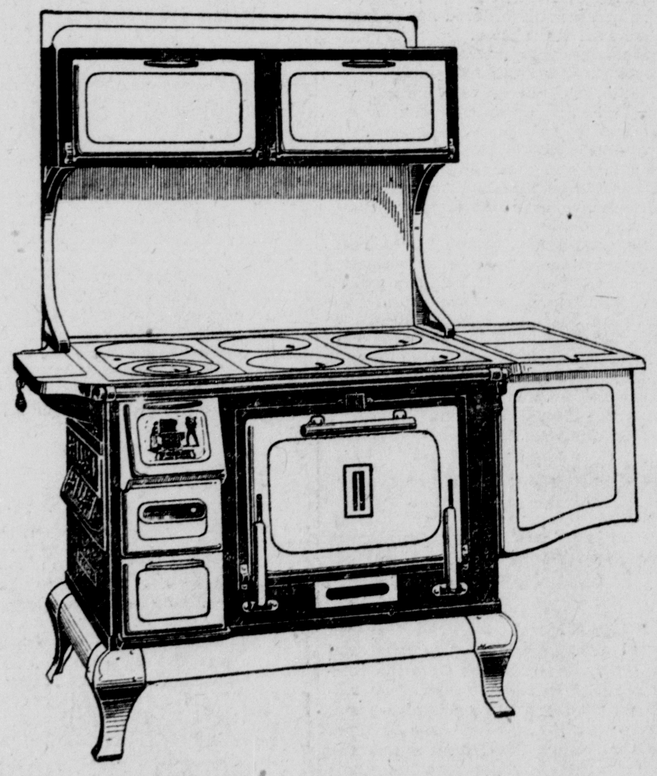

In the Joy, the gases from soft coal combine with heated air coming through the slits of the Hot Blast Fire Box and burn up clean—giving greater heat and saving fuel.

Water Front—where running water is available, the fire box in all Joy Ranges can be equipped with either a "straight" or "L" shaped Water Front, for heating water. Extra charge is made for water front.
Castings—all castings are strong, durable, quick heating and will not crack, twist, rust or warp.
Dimensions—all models are made in two sizes—(1)—with oven 20 inches wide, and (2) with oven 18 inches wide. Following are the exact dimensions:

SAVES FUEL AND KEEPS KITCHEN COOL
The "Joy way" enables you to iron and cook a meal at the same time without heating the oven. This saves fuel and keeps the kitchen comfortable.

A RANGE YOU'LL ENJOY
With a Joy Eclipse you are sure of good cooking results and shorter kitchen hours. It fits comfortably into limited spaces, makes a handsome piece of kitchen furniture, and by helping you prepare meals more quickly saves you both time and fuel.

A Steel Bodied Range with MALLEABLE FITTINGS
That has no Peer

Every inch of the inside flue surface and the entire malleable iron top of the SOUTH BEND MALLEABLE is given a thorough Bower-Barff rust-resisting treatment at intense heat which fuses the treatment right into the pores of the metal and is not to be compared with the thin coating or plating processes used by many firms. We have spent years of time and thousands of dollars in experimenting to find a genuine rust-resisting treatment and our Patent Bower-Barff process is the greatest known preventive against the action of rust and creosote in range bodies and tops. The rust-resisting flues alone on the SOUTH BEND MALLEABLE make our range double the value of any other. Think what it means to own a range whose flues will resist the action of dampness, creosote and rust.

REGULATE THE HOT AIR AND HUMIDITY OF LIVING ROOMS.

The "Gas Magazine" has a good deal to say about the proper way of regulating the atmosphere of our living rooms. We make some extracts from a long article, as follows:

Overheating houses and public buildings in the United States not only wastes approximately 30 per cent of the coal used for this purpose, but is the fundamental cause of our traditional susceptibility to winter colds. Winter colds are serious because they lead to more serious diseases. Keep the humidity always at least above 50 per cent. There is no automatic way of keeping the humidity so high except by the use of special steam valves in a steam-heating apparatus, or by the use of an automatic water supply in a hot-air heater. Both of these devices are on the market, although they are little known. If you cannot utilize either of them, you must keep a kettle of water boiling on the stove, or keep a large cloth thoroughly dampened behind the radiator, or keep a large pan of water within every hot-air register. The house will be amazingly more comfortable. Drafts will be pleasant and healthful, inseead of unpleasant and dangerous. You will have fewer colds. You will feel better in every respect—wider awake, more energetic, happier. You will save from 15 to 20 per cent of your coal, because you will enjoy a much lower temperature inside the house than you did last winter—it is the last few degrees of heating which are the hardest, the most expensive.

Pay more attention to what your wife thinks of the temperature, because she probably prefers a cooler house than her husband does. As Professor Lee says: "Woman possess a perpetual blanket of adipose tissue betwen her skin and her muscles which is usually less developed in men, and hence women are usually comfortable at a lower temperature. I have seen more than one happy home in danger of wrecking from this unfortunate difference. As a married man I am tempted to plead for great charity on the part of wives; as a physiologist I realize that a lower temperature is more healthful. Keep your air in motion (with an electric fan or slightly open windows.) With electric fans in use there would be fewer naps in churches."

WHAT WORLD DID SHE MEAN?

A young woman with bobbed blonde hair leaped from a New York ferryboat in midstream the other day crying, "I don't want any more of this world." Her last words were eloquent enough, but they raise the question in many minds, what world was she talking about?

Surely not the world of the young businesswoman, intent on her work, and striving for success. Nothing about that world to seek escape from in the icy waters of the Hudson. Certainly not the world of the young mother with her brood of healthy children, watching them grow up under her patient care and waiting patiently for the coming of honored manhood and womashood. Nor yet the world of the student, seeking the lamp of knowledge which lighteth others nor grows less. Here is a world in which millions live happily, and whose only regret is that they may not live in it always. Obviously the world referred to by this disillusioned young woman was not the world familiar to so many people.

"I don't want any more of this world." In new form it is the oldest cry in the world. The cry of a Cain suffering punishment greater than he can bear. The cry of the prodigal, sick of the husks of his own choosing. Incidents like this remind us that there are worlds of degradation and heartbreak, whose victims utter their little cry and disappear forever. But these are not the worlds most of us know about, and are only too happy to keep on living in.

OPPORTUNITY FOR YOUTH.

This land of ours has opportunity for the youth afforded by no other country in the world. If one questions this, let him read one or more of the numerous biographies written recently by and of men who came to this country to take their chance in making a place for themselves and being a blessing to mankind.

For instance, let him read "The Americanization of Edward Bok" (pub. Charles Scribners.) Let him read it. Why? Because thousands of other people are reading it. The famous editor of the Ladies' Home Journal was known to millions of Americans. He is perhaps one of the most successful journalists of this or any other generation. He came to this country from the Netherlands when a small child. He gave himself to the American opportunity with a zeal characteristic of the child of the foreigner. He worked. He studied. He proved himself trustworthy. He gained recognition. He made good at every task. Men confided in him. He became a man of intellectual powers whom others sought to help them at their great task. He came to his own as the editor of one of the most outstanding American journals. Under his direction it rapidly grew in circulation until it was read by multiplied millions. He became a national influence. He determined social customs and policies. The son of an immigrant became a man of national affairs, interpreting the ideals and standards of pure Americanism to the satisfaction of all thoughtful men. Indeed, he created standards and interpreted them to the public.

Then came the time for his retirement. He wrote his autobiography. It proved to be rich in interest. People everywhere sought to read it. Its Americanism, its honesty and modesty and frankness made a profound appeal. The nation was made better by it, while it is being read in every public library and at every fireside.

THE EARLY SPRING TRAINING FOR THE SEASON OF 1924

1903--Twenty Years Ago--1923

News was received in this city yesterday afternoon of a terrific explosion which occurred yesterday morning at King's powder mills and which caused the death of Alpheus Moon, who has a number of relatives in this city and county.

Mr. J. H. Harbine of Alpha, who has kept a record of the weather for a number of years, said today that he had a record of a warmer day in March than we are just experiencing. On Tuesday, March 24, 1894, his records show that the mercury in the thermometer reached 84 degrees while on March 18 of this year the mercury only reached 78.

Dandelions, spring beauties, garter snakes and other evidences of spring have been multiplying this week at the O. S. and S. O. Home.

BEAUTY CHATS by EDNA KENT FORBES

TOUCHING UP THE LIPS

Chapped lips are not necessarily a winter affliction, March winds are often more disastrous than February frosts to the girl with a sensitive skin.

Such a girl will need some sort of lip salve up to the very warm days of springs, indeed if the summer is very hot she will probably find that the sun will dry and chap her lips, as well as wet wind and winter cold.

Now the ordinary lip rouge may keep the skin from shapping but it has many disadvantages. The warmer the weather the more it shows up. Indeed there is never any way of disguising the fact that the lips have been touched with red. It comes off on the handkerchief or the table napkin, or it rubs against the veil of the hat, it leaves its scarlet mark against anything it touches. Besides, unless it is put on with more skill than 90 women out of 100 possess, it makes the face look make-up.

The lips vary so in color that it is almost impossible to match their exact tint, so consequently all our women go about with dark, medium or bright vermilion mouths, the three shades found in beauty shops, all of them tending to the conventional cupid's bow shape with a varying outter line of paler natural color lips. You may think I am over critical in saying this, but then it is my business, to be so, and if you yourself will observe as carefully as I you will see ho wtinted lips tend to monotony.

A Girl—"Bitter Aloes" is the name of an extract made from herbs that are extremely bitter.

As there is nothing in it that is harmful it is often used to paint under the tip of nails to break up the habit of biting them. A girl of 19 who is five feet two and half inches would be normal weight at 110 pounds.

Anxious—Bleach the freckles with lemon juice or an extract made from cucurbers. Freckles will always return if they are natural to your type.

J. M. C.—Cleansing cream is used to clear the pores in place of soap. In localities where the air is laden with soil that gets into the skin, it requires such a cream to keep it clean. The best time for such a cleansing is at night before retiring.

Remove the cream and close the pores by dashing cold water over the face and throat.

Tomorrow—Beauty by Suggestion.

MARCH WINDS

cause much discomfort and are the basis for disagreeable and dangerous colds. Spring colds should be cared for at once or they are liable to linger until warm weather.

SPRING ERUPTIONS

Keep nose passages free through daily use of Spunoint. Do not "dose" yourself with nauseous drugs or harmful narcotics. Dry air takes moisture from nose and throat and the irritated condition invites germs. Spunoint repels disease organisms, through keeping breathing passages moist and clear.

This is the season for boils and pimples. Begin using Spunoint the minute the skin becomes irritated. If the boil has formed, or pimples are in evidence, apply Spunoint as directed and secure immediate relief.

"Spunoint" is the ointment, that contains no drugs or narcotics. It combines mildness with quick restorative qualities. It goes to the root of all congestion and inflammation and dispels it.

MRS. SARAH HARTMAN, COLUMBUS, O.

W. Fulton Street Woman Recovers From a Severe Case of Stomach Trouble.

Statements from local people telling what Ka-di-ok has done for them and expressing their gratitude are continually being received. Selected at random from a large number on file is the following from Mrs. Sarah Hartman, living at 30 W. Fulton Street Columbus, who says: "I have been a sufferer from stomach trouble for years, some times my stomach would become so weak that I could not take the lightest kind of food or even a sip or two of water or other liquid without it souring and causing me distress and suffering afterwards. I would become so weak that I could hardly take care of the simplest kind of housework. My inability to take proper nourishment caused me to become very nervous and discouraged. I read about Ka-di-ok and started to take it. My condition improved after the first day or two. I now have a good appetite and am eating anything that appeals to me without any bad effect afterwards. I have regained my former strength and take care of my housework without any fatigue. Ki-di-ok is a grand medicine and I am pleased to tell of my experiences with it."

Ka-di-ok can be obtained at Sayre & Hemphill's Drug Store, Xenia.

Today's Talk

Recompense

I have often wondered how life would turn out if there were no recompenses.

Tonight I looked into the face of one of the most wonderful moons I have ever seen.

I saw it first as it faced me, right in front, down the road where I was driving.

I was but a few blocks from the ocean and so I hurried to the water's edge.

There, rising just above the surface of the water, was a great orange ball. Slowly it floated into a nest of gray-white clouds that soon were silver tinted at their edges.

Then it took upon itself a bright lemon color and rose higher and higher in the sky.

Across the water the reflections grew in width and beauty until they were washed to my feet, dying in the dampened sand.

I turned and walked away. But I glanced back to see that wonderful moon gleaming through tall palms and lace-foliaged evergreen trees.

And this is the thought I took away: God gives us recompense for all we lose in this world, by paving the very path through which we walk with love and beauty.

I have an interest in every rose, every violet, every pansy, every river, every blade of grass, every bird song, every sunrise and every sunset every work of art and every effort that springs into life and being, no matter where.

Take the one who has played every card—for love—and lost.

Recompense can only come through giving, through putting the spirit and feeling of that which is missed in to something that inspires and endures for others—which, in turn, rebuilds him who has given.

Life cannot hand out the same gifts to all. They would not fit, anyway.

for that COUGH KEMP'S BALSAM

A Stubborn Cough Loosens Right Up

This home-made remedy is a wonder for quick results. Easily and cheaply made.

Here is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest soreness goes, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, croup, throat tickle, bronchial asthma or winter coughs.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you get a full pint—a family supply—of much better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Keeps perfectly and children love its pleasant taste.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its prompt healing effect upon the membranes.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

RADIO EXPERTS TO TAKE UP AIR TASK-TO DISTRIBUTE USE

Washington, March 21.—The air is overcrowded. So the radio experts of the government and the country at large are planning to redistribute it so as to give elbow room for everybody.

A group of a dozen experts are in session at the department of commerce trying to figure it out.

Failure of congress to enact the White bill, which passed the house, but was lostin the senate jam at the close of the session, has left it up to Secretary Hoover and his assistants to work out some form of voluntary regulation that will serve until congress meets again and adopts radio legislation.

The problems before the conference here are: Public use of wave lengths between 600 and 1,600 meters, now reserved exclusively for government stations; restriction of power used by certain high powered stations that tend to monopolize air channels; inter-communication and broadcasting on special wave lengths for colleges and universities; revision of broadcasting programs to eliminate non-essential and frivolous use of the air; point to point communication by government and commercial interests; elimination of interference by devices not used for radio communication; restriction of all services to exclusive use of wave lengths allocated; designation of silent periods for broadcasting and amateur stations; regulations for line radio (wired wireless); special methods for selective, secret or "noninterfering" radio communication; technical methods for reduction of interference.

The great problem is to accommodate the demand for short wave length distribution, so that the vast numbers of listeners can receive the entertainment programs and other material sent out by broadcasting stations in their local areas.

A technical engineer pointed out at the conference that there are 33 channels for radio telephone use in the wave bands of 360 down to 200 meter length, while there are only 15 channels in the range from 600 to 1,600 meters. So it is the shorter lengths that possess the greater possibilities for radio communication.

Radio in the past six months, it was stated, has passed from the fad stage into the realm of public necessity. There are 22,740 stations licensed by the bureau of navigation, which has supervision over radio communication. Of these, 17,683 are amateur stations, 3,558 commercial stations, 885 government stations and 614 special land stations. Included in the commercial stations are 588 for broadcasting. These figures give some idea of the radio development.

LIBERAL FACTIONS IN FAVOR OF UNION

London, March 21.—Liberal members of parliament in caucus in the house of commons voted 41 to 12 in favor of the reunion of the Liberal factions and the creation of a parliamentary committee, composed of Herbert Asquith, Sir John Simon, Lloyd George and Sir Alfred Mond, to outline the future policy for the house and make arrangement for united action.

In subsequent proceedings of the house there appeared to be a "fly in the ointment" of the Liberal reunion. Asquith made an attack on the old coalition government for not placing the documents in the Mesopotamia dispute before the house. Lloyd George answered by stating that the government had never been asked for them, whereupon Asquith retorted that a patriotic government would have produced them without being asked.

In the middle of the Mesopotamia debate there was a savage attack on oil grabs. Following a bitter debate in which the Liberals demanded that Britain clear out of Mesopotamia, the house by a vote of 258 to 158 agreed to an appropriation of £813,000 in addition to the £174,000,000 spent since the beginning of the British occupation.

TWO NEW BASEBALL LEAGUES PROPOSED

2ND GAME OF CITY SERIES DRAWS INTEREST WEDNESDAY

LeSOURD WINS LETTER ON WESLEYAN FIVE

LeSourd Wins Letter

Delaware Ohio, March 21.—The list of those who will be awarded basketball letters at Ohio Wesleyan University has been announced, William LeSourd 116 West Market Street, being one of the eight men. LeSourd has without doubt been the most consistent player on the team and at the same time the hardest fighter.

He played forward most of the season but he could play guard with equal success as was seen on the few times when he was off on his shooting and was pulled back to a guard position. Although he wasn't a flashy type of player, he was the most valuable man on the team, because his team-mates could always depend upon Bill being on the job.

At the beginning of the season, Coach Van Alstyne was confronted with the task of building a new team around one man, Captain Hubbard. With the exception of Guard Thomson, the rest of the team this year are sophomores. In spite of this handicap of inexperience, Ohio Wesleyan finished better than 500 per cent this season.

STAGE SET FOR SERIES
By Wones

The Famous Autos and the John Roan Post basketball teams will hook up in the second game of the city series Wednesday night at the Rink.

This game promises to be a thriller as there is little to choose between the two teams. The colored lads won the first game and are counting on taking the second contest and also winning the title of City Champs, but on the other hand the Autos are sure that they can turn the tables on Coach Mohr's warriors and they by so doing even up the series. Should the Autos cop this contest a third game will be necessary which will be held at the Rink, March 28. The Autos, who play in the City Basketball league at Dayton under the name of Elder and Johnson team defeated the North Side Merchants by a 21 to 13 score. Barlow and Harry Solimano starred for the Elders. Their passwork and basket shooting was high class. So this goes to show that the Autos are in the pink of condition and the Legion will have to exhibit the kind of ball that they showed when they handed the Pittsburgh Loendi a drubbing in order to take this game from Haller's athletes. The Famous Autos will lineup with Barlow and Joe Mark at the forwards, Harry Solimano at center and "Peck" Koehly and "Speck" Solowitz at the guards while "Moon" Koester will be in reserve.

The Legion will be without the services of "Wu Fang" Ward, who plays at guard and "Chink" Noel, who was seen at one of the front positions in last Wednesday's game. These two lads are fine players and the Legion will miss them very much but Coach Mohr has two other boys he says are just about as good. One of these lads is Willowite of Wilberforce, who starred on the football team the past season and the other player's name has not yet been announced. The Legion will have Winters and J. Anderson at the forwards Duff at center, Butler and Willowite at the guards while the other athlete will fill in some place.

There will be a preliminary between the Merchants, the city champs and the Xenia Chancellors, which team is made up of East High School players.

The Merchants will have Reutinger, Hendrickson, "Bob" Gegner, "Simp" Douthett, Witham, Baynard and other star performers in their lineup while the Chancellors will use Porter, H. Taylor, D. Ware, Smith J. Ware and B. Ware. With these kind of lads pitted against each other the fur is bound to fly. This game will get under way at 7:30 p. m.

The Auto-Legion game will be handled by L. Rachford of this city. The price of admission will be 55 cents for any seat in the Rink. The main event will start at 8:15.

Two Baseball Leagues Here?

That Xenia and Greene County baseball fans may be interested in two different baseball leagues to be operated in the county this summer is given assurance from the rumors that have been boiling off the stove league still.

Dopesters say that the Washington C. H. Athletics, Jeffersonville Tigers and a Greenfield team will compose the eastern trio of a semi-pro league, in which the Bayliffs of this city will also be invited to take part. The Wilmington Clintons and the Yellow Springs Athletics are expected to furnish the other teams in the proposed six-team loop.

While the semi-pros are getting together in this fashion, B. B. Bowermesiter, of Bowersville, who is making a consistent fight to place amateur league ball on a high plane in Greene County, and who sponsored the Zig Zag Community loop of last summer, is making an effort to get another circuit together for the coming campaign.

Bowermeister believes he will be able to swing Sabina and Milledgeville with Bowersville for the eastern half of the loop and is now seeking to find three teams in Greene County to represent the western half of the league. A team from Xenia, one from Springfield, and one either from Cedarville, Fairfield or Osborn, is now the hope of the league leader. Last year's Zig Zag loop created a whole lot of interest in the county inspiring an inter-community spirit of rivalry. This year an inter-county interest would be built up by a loop formed as outlined which would insure more general interest in the games. It is planned to schedule the contests on a half-season basis, so that the schedule would finish mid-season and a new schedule commence. The winners in each division would be entitled to play in the "world series" for the full league championship and the winner of that series might be pitted against winners of the other loop. The teams will play Sunday ball, the Saturday afternoon effort of last summer, not having been patronized.

Team managers interested in the proposed loop should write B. B. Bowermeister, at Bowersville or get in touch with the sport editor of this paper.

Holds Record

Milwaukee, Wis., March 21.—A. Atkinson of Milwaukee, today holds the record for the high three game bowling score, Atkinson, rolling with Clybourne Alley team of Milwaukee, in the American Bowling Congress tournament here, piled up a total of 735, his scores for the three games being 232, 258 and 245.

The previous high score was made by Willis Lundgren, of Chicago, at Toledo, last year, when he scored 727 in three games.

INSURANCE AND BONDS

Of All Obtainable Kinds Protect Deposits in The Buckeye. All Approved Safeguards Are Employed.

Blanket Bonds of Strong Surety and Insurance Companies protect us against losses through embezzlement, theft, dishonesty, misplacement, forgery, daylight holdup, burglary, messenger holdup, fire, explosion, windstorm, cyclone and tornado. Our registered mail is insured to the full value of its contents. We also have a blanket insurance policy covering all of our safe deposit boxes.

A continuous daily audit by our Company Auditor and his two assistants quickly detects errors and thereby tends to prevent irregularities. Besides this we have a weekly audit by a committee of three Directors and a monthly audit by another committee of three other Directors.

Outside of business hours our records and securities are further protected by modern time locks, electric vault alarms (connected with The American District Telegraph Co.) and two night watchmen. During business hours two police officers in uniform are on duty in our lobby.

These safeguards all cost money but we earn enough to afford them. We would feel negligent without them.

Thin? Run-down? Sure Way to Get Right Weight

Increase Your Red-Blood-Cells. That's the Sure Way! S. S. S. Builds Blood-Cells; This Means Strength!

Do you know why insurance companies refuse to insure a great many men because they are under weight? Simply because to be under weight often proves low fighting-power in the body. It often means you are minus nerve-power, minus red-cells in your blood, minus health, minus energy, minus vitality. It is serious to be minus, but the moment you increase the number of your red-blood-cells, you begin to become plus. That's why S. S. S., since 1826, has meant to thousands of underweight men and women, a plus in their strength. Hollow cheeks fill out. You stop being a calamity-looker. You inspire confidence. Your body fills to the point of power, your flesh becomes firmer, the age lines that come from thinness disappear. You look younger, firmer, happier, and you feel it, too, all over your body. More red-blood-cells! S. S. S. will build them. Ladies and gentlemen, a pesky, bony face doesn't make you look very important or pretty, does it? Take S. S. S. It contains only pure vegetable medicinal ingredients. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores in two sizes. The larger size bottle is the more economical.

S.S.S. makes you feel like yourself again

LADY FITTER
Coming
TO HELP
Ruptured Women
DEMONSTRATES
FREE TO ALL

the Beckel Hotel, Dayton, Ohio, Wednesday afternoon and evening, March 21st, and all day and evening, Thursday, March 22d, also at the Gibson Hotel, Cincinsati, Ohio, Saturday, March 24th and Monday, March 26th, to demonstrate a new special corset attachment that holds any rupture no matter how large. Even if the abdomen is very fleshy, it holds any rupture with ease, comfort and security.

Special Combined Rupture and Corset Back Support.

Every woman who has been compelled to wear an ordinary truss or abdominal support knows the gouging, cutting and chafing caused by narrow bands. The weight of the abdomen or pressure necessary in holding the rupture must be carried by the band around the back, and the pressure is sometimes very great, causing untold suffering. The special, broad supporting corset back distributes the pressure so as to do away with all cutting and chafing.

There are thousands of women who are in perfect misery because they cannot find anything that will hold their rupture and the abdomen at the same time. The appliances usually worn are hot, bulky, chafing and irritating. But this wonderful Combined Corset Back Support is light, flexible, durable and cool and fits the figure like a glove. It gives you a sense of absolute comfort and protection while at the same time greatly improving abdominal outlines.

Trusses in common use are not adapted to women and often do great harm. Women therefore, suffer more and are in greater danger from rupture than men, and all women, who have ruptures or who wear an abdominal support of any kind should not fail to call and see this wonderful Combined Corset Back Support. No description or illustration can fully convey the remarkable utility of this splendid Support. It must be seen; it must be put on to convince any woman that it was designed for her.

The Lady Fitter takes a large woman just as she is, all out of shape and unsightly, and by this remarkable Corset Support gives her a natural, neat, trim figure.

She will also give full instructions on how to handle and care for any rupture, large or small. She will show how to hold any kind of rupture from the simple groin and femoral to the large and difficult Navel and after Operation Ruptures, without chafing or squeezing, also how to wear the corset correctly.

Don't let this great opportunity get away from you. Don't continue to suffer the burden of rupture and truss wearing when it is so entirely unnecessary. Your call on this Lady Fitter is sure to prove one of the best things you ever did. She will be here only two days, then your opportunity will be gone. The fitting and demonstration are free. It don't cost you a penny to learn all about the Rice Method and the wonderful opportunity for help and cure it offers in your case. After demonstration you can purchase the Outfit required if you wish.

Call any time from 9 to 12 a. m., 2 to 5 p. m., or 7 to 9 evenings. Just ask at the hotel desk for the Rice Lady Fitter and she will do the rest.

MYSTERY SURROUNDS DEATH OF ARTISTS MODEL

Investigation is being made by the police of St. Paul, Minn., into the death of Miss Anita Lehman, a beautiful artists's model, whose body was found in the home of her sister. ESTABLISH MYSTIC CULT WHERE KINGS HELD TRYST

The famous Forest of Fontainbleau, near Paris, where ancient French monarchs held their trysts, now contains a beautiful temple of a new school of the occult, headed by a Greek mystic, and made up of a band of disciples of men and women which includes many of those famous in the old Russian Court and others from society life in England. Striving to live a secluded and simple life, they hope to attain "soul emancipation." Only those visitors who wish to join the cult are permitted to enter. They are received at a beautful villa, and if they convince the committee they are desirable they are enrolled as mmbers. Within the wood is a gorgeous temple for study and meditation, a unique amphitheatre, with rare carpets and rugs and pillows that will rival any other collection in the world.

YOUR KIDNEYS?

"Don't Treat Your Kidneys Rough," Warns Dr. Carey

Constant Flushing May Injure the Delicate Organism and Seldom Removes the Poisonous Deposits

Now that Dr. Carey, kidney and bladder specialist, has retired from active practice, he generously warns people that even the smallest symptoms of kidney trouble should have serious attention.

Backache, for instance, puffness under or specks floating before the eyes, heavy feet and dry skin, are also danger signals.

"Thousands die yearly because they neglect their kidneys," says Dr. Carey "and I feel upon retiring that I should tell all who even suspect kidney or bladder trouble about my Prescription No. 777, which, during my active practice, has cured thousands of all kinds of kidney ailments."

This prescription has been given to pharmacists generally throughout America and is dispensed by them under the name of Dr. Carey's Prescription No. 777, a name that every sufferer from kidney trouble should remember.

NEW YORK GOVERNOR PREPARING WARM ANSWER TO FESS

Washington, March 21.—Governor Smith of New York is preparing a warm reply to the recent letter sent to him by Senator Fess. The New York World describes the governor's frame of mind as a result of the Fess letter as follows:

"If President Harding will invite Governor Alfred E. Smith to his White House conference of governors in April, when prohibition enforcement is to be discussed, Governor Smith will be glad to answer in person the letter of Senator elect Fess of Ohio assailing New York state for daring to ask Congress for light wines and beer.

"Pending formal receipt of such an invitation from the president, however, Smith will reply through the mails to Fess' communication and explain vigorously why New York demands modification of the Volstead act. Fess, it is known, is due to receive a rip-snorter from the governor.

"If President Harding, who has overlooked the governor of the nation's most populous state in his bid to the law enforcement powwow, asks Governor Smith to attend, the governor's address at Washington will it is promised, be a notable, even sensational contribution to the forensic controversy raging over the merits and domerits of the eighteenth amendment and its Volsteadian offspring. Incidentally it will give Smith a welcome opportunity to amplify the letter he is to write Senator Fess.

The Fess letter, declares the governor's spokesman, is not to be read merely in the light of a verbal passage between a governor and a U. S. senator representing opposite parties. Rather must it be regarded as a challenge from the natural mouthpiece of the dominant party in the nation to the most potential possibility of the Democratic presidential nomination in 1924, on a subject that may become the outstanding issue in the campaign next year.

IF BACK HURTS FLUSH KIDNEYS

Drink Plenty Water and Take Glass of Salts Before Breakfast Occasionally

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which helps to remove the body's urinous waste and stimulate them to their normal activity.

The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of good water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts. Take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they are no longer a source of irritation, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this; also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year. adv

Similar Cases Being Published In Each Issue.

The following case is but one of many occurring daily in Xenia. It is an easy matter to verify it. You cannot ask for better proof.

J. F. Mellage, shoemaker, 426 W. Second St., Xenia, says: "My back throbbed and ached constantly. Every time I stooped the least bit I got a stab of pain through my back that felt just like a knife cut. When I bent it was hard to straighten again, my back was so knotted up. Mornings I dreaded to get up, I was so stiff and lame. I easily tired and soon became very weak. My kidneys were too free in action and I had to get up several times at night to pass the secretions. Doan's Kidney Pills were so highly praised that I got some. I used about six boxes when I was absolutely cured of the backache and my kidneys again became normal."

LAW VIOLATORS WILL GET LIMIT-LAWYERS SCORED

Cleveland, March 21.—Violators of federal prohibition laws found guilty by a jury before Judge J. M. Killitts will receive the limit of the law, he stated in open court today in a denunciation of lawyers who enter pleas of "not guilty" well knowing that their clients guilty as charged.

Sitting here in the trial of a large number of liquor law cases, Judge Killitts warned those guilty of law violations that they would at least save a lawyer's fee by admitting their guilt.

"I will impose the limit sentence upon every man found guilty by a jury in these cases," he said.

"I have no respect for an attorney who will come into this court and plead his client not guilty when he knows that client is guilty," Judge Killitts declared. "It disgusts me to listen to a lawyer plead for mercy for his client after he has been convicted, on the ground he has no money when the attorney already has collected all the money he can get from him."

TONSILITIS

WARNING!

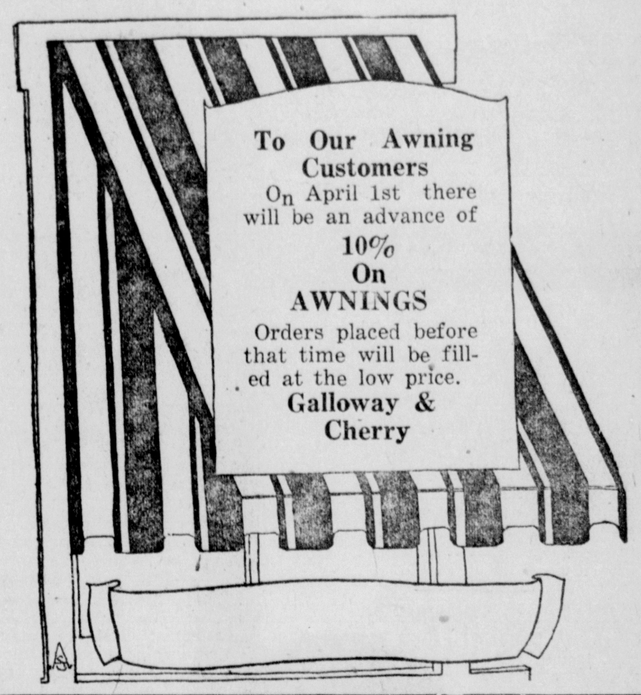

Tonsilitis season is here! Doctors agree that every minute of the day, germs try to force themselves into our bodies with their ravaging coughs, colds, tonsilitis, bronchitis, flu, pneumonia and other diseases. Almost every contagion they warn, gains entrance through the mouth.

But several of our leading scientists have now discovered how these germs can often be killed in many cases just by the daily use of a special mouth rinse.

Much disease could probably be avoided it is felt if people would only get from their druggist, a package of Denta Caps. Empty one small capsule in warm water. Use as a mouth and throat wash. Let its pleasant, but powerful liquid drive the germ pests from their hiding places and kill them. Stop the disease before it starts—

Get Denta Caps from your druggist. Tomorrow may be too late.

Pyorrhea, nasal catarrh and other affections of nose, mouth and throat have been corrected by Denta Caps in many cases. As a prophylatic and deodorant, Denta Caps enjoy a wide use. DENTA CAPS INC., 306 East 40th St., N. Y. C.

RECOVER AUTOMOBILE STOLEN OVER YEAR AGO IN COLUMBUS

A year and one-half after the Essex touring car owned by Postmaster R. B. Hickman, of Wilberforce, was stolen, Harry Hocks, 28, colored, was arrested in Columbus and is being held in County Jail here charged with the theft. The arrest was made last Friday.

At the same time the automobile was recovered and turned over to The State Automobile Insurance Association the claim of Hickman having already been settled. Hock was arrested and the car recovered by George R. Ruder and R. D. Gatton, of the auto recovery bureau of the Columbus Police Department.

Ruder and Robert Pein, Ohio Manager for the State Automobile Insurance Association brought Hocks to this city Wednesday morning and turned him over to Sherriff M. Sharp. During the grilling in the sheriff's office, Hocks told several different stories, first incriminating William Walker, farmer at Wilberforce University, and later repudiating his story of Walker's guilt. He refused to confess, however, and was locked up pending a hearing.

Hickman's car was stolen October 15, 1921, at Wilberforce and no trace of it was found until last week, when Detectives Ruder and Gatton obtained information concerning Hock's alleged operations. Learning the whereabouts of the car and that Hocks intended to take it away, the detectives broke into the private garage where it was stored and confiscated it Hocks was arrested shortly afterward, and held in Columbus while police attempted to piece out the story of the theft. When the identity of the car and is movements since the theft was traced, Hocks was brought here to face an affidavit sworn out Wednesday by Hickman. Motor numbers and other identification marks had been changed, police say.

Walker was brought into the case when it was alleged that Walker's wife had signed the papers to procure license tags for the machine. Police say Hocks was attempting to throw the guilt on Walker and his wife. Mrs. Walker was questioned at her home in Wilberforce Wednesday while she was in bed under the care of a physician. he said Hocks told her the car was his but that he wanted her to apply for the license in order to prevent his mother from knowing he owned the machine.

Time of arraignment of Hocks has not been set.

POTATO IN SHAPE OF PERFECT HEART FOUND

A potato in the shape of a perfect heart is the remarkable find of Mrs. Eliza Ayres, 409 East Church Street.

Peeling potatoes for dinner Sunday, Mrs. Ayres found the heart-potato among other tubars she was preparing to cook.

The potato is not a local product but was found among potatoes Mrs. Ayres had purchased. Its shape requires no guess work or stretch of the imagination for it is cleverly perfect as if wrought by human hand.

Mrs. Ayres considers the potato a good omen. She has placed it on display in the window of the Tiffany Jewelry Store, South Detroit Street.

OLD NEIL HOUSE CEASES BUSINESS— WILL BE RAZED

Columbus, March 21.—After 84 years of accommodation, barring two years devoted to rebuilding a part destroyed by fire the night of the day Abraham Lincoln was elected to be President, November 6, 1860, the Neil House the Capital's oldest hotel, yesterday ceased doing business.

Wreckers soon will level it to make way for the erection of a huge modern caravansery which will carry historic name of its predecessor. A few old residents will cling to their rooms until the end of the week, when they wil wander out to seek other homes.

The ending the old regime, as it were, was marked by a public ceremony because of the deep interest displayed in the famous old inn by the residents of this city and vicinity. Many guests came from afar, politicians, merchants and men of affairs, to join in the exercises and bid farewell to the place that has been the scene of many attractions to them.

In the gathering the politicians of both parties predominated, as the hotel, ever since its erection, has been the headquarters of party conferences and of candidates and because under its roof more real state business has been transacted than in the Capitol across the street.

The General Assembly adjourned early to be present and Governor A. V. Donahey performed the symbolic ceremony of turning the key in the door, signifying the closing of the place.

Major Henry M. Neil, 91 years old, one of the owners of the property, the last direct descendant of the founder, was the guest of honor.

Howard Chandler Christy, artist, former Governor James E. Campbell, Speaker Hal H. Griswold, Lieutenant Governor Earl Bloom, Senator Nettie E. Loughead, of Cincinnati; James W. Faulkner, of the Cincinnati Enquirer, and others were introduced by Mayor James J. Thomas who presided, Thaddeus H. Brown Secretary of State, acted as Clerk and took upon a special register the names of the guests, which are to be placed in the cornerstone of the new edifice.

BUCKSKIN JOE IN PRAIRIE SCHOONER PAYS XENIA VISIT IN TRUE FRONTIER STYLE ENROUTE HOME

Boys, cast your glimmers over Buckskin Joe, the dog-gondest, travellinist white man that ever slung a leg over a pinto or cooked a slab of bacon over a brush wood fire.

Buckskin Joe and Mrs. Buckskin Joe, with a prairie schooner of the frontier type, a buck-board, four horses, two dogs and a lot of romantic atmosphere are doing a Bill Hart over the country, traveling in frontier style. They are camped for a few days on the property of the Barnet Lumber Company, at Hivling and Leaman streets.

Joe and his good wife arrived in Xenia Thursday afternoon from Wilmington, and are temporarily halting their trip here with the intentions of leaving Wednesday for Dayton and points north to eventuate in Detroit, Michigan. And the whole trip is the result of a wager which Buckskin Joe, in a moment of unguardedness and bravado, made with a fellow mortal in dear old Chi.

It seems that Joe, before he bet on Jimmy Cox, or whoever it was, used to do his stuff right regularly posing as a model for artists, who ran to western types of guant cowboys in hickory shirts gazing into the west with one hand shading the eyes and the other dexterously rolling a cigarette, while waiting for the mailman, or friend wife, or whoever else would happen to be paddling around the old dessert.

After nine long and trying years at this profession, Buckskin Joe made a wager, in which he guaranteed to travel 2,500 miles over these United States, riding horseback and carrying equipment that with his own weight, would make up 250 pounds. The trip has been carried out, being made in the form of a button hook, or corkscrew or some other obsolete implement of a forgotten period and Buckskin Joe and the Mrs. now have their faces and those of their wagons, horses and dogs turned homeward.

Oh yes, just a word about the horse. Buckskin Joe may not have had a pleasurable trip scaring up a button hook trail, but it will be remembered that Joe rode, while the horse, perforce, and probably out of habit, walked. And so this part of the story is about the horse. Bob, for that is our hero's name, is 16 years old and never been—anyway he's 16 years old. He is buckskin color, whatever that is, and weighs about 900 pounds, with his overcoat off.

So that's that.

ANN MAKES EXCUSES FOR DICK

CHAPTER 38

Always before, her heart full of pity Ann had at least partially undressed Dick, made him comfortable as she could.

But his mention of Grace, calling her "Sunbeam" hardened her, and she let him lie as he fell, not even loosening his collar; neither did she make any attempt to waken him, but after a bit put out the light and went to bed.

Hours later she hearded him stirring. He grumbled as he made a light and then undressed. The gray light of a morning that soon would be broad sunlight came in the window as he entered the room where she was a contented sigh escaping him as he settled down comfortably.

"I was pretty full last night, wasn't I?" he said with a sheepish grin when he appeared at breakfast.

"Thought you'd punish me by letting me sleep with my clothes on. Gee but I was stiff when I woke up. I thought I'd never get the kink in my neck straighten out."

He wasn't offended looked upon it as a joke, was gay as usual through breakfast, and played with Jack before he went out.

"He's so irresponsible!" Ann sighed as she went about her work. To test him she had asked him whom he saw the day before.

He remembered everyone ,told her the gossip about them, until he joined a certain man he knew to have his dinner and a drink. He told her vaguely that "crowd of fellows" joined them, but could give no names. He became so evidently annoyed that Ann desisted. Told him to "never mind."

"She had been tempted to speak to the doctor on one of his visits, to talk to him about this loss of memory that so disturbed her.

But her pride would not let her. She had been so careful to withhold his weakness from everyone.

But dreams do not die, and Ann still kept her dream of a happy future with Dick and her boy; a little faded perhaps not so clear in outline, but still there. At times when she sat alone the dream shone forth in her longing eyes.

Like many women of her temperament Ann preserved a sort of a remote and proud consciousness of her body, a physical reticence. This, contact with Grace had disturbed. While almost despising her for it, Ann realized that Grace used all her physical attractions to win Dick; that she played with sex as with a toy; that life to her was a game in which she freely used all the means at her command to win—like a good sport if she could, cheating if she felt it necessary.

And she was cheating now—cheating Dick, herself, Ann.

Dick was married, could be nothing that was honest to her; she was cheating herself by spending her time, her youth in her quest of him; she was cheating Ann of her faith in her husband, in life itself. She expected to make her own terms with Life, and so far it seemed Life had accepted them.

Grace had resumed her careless familiarity as if nothing had happened.

The first time she came over alone after Dick had laid aside his crutches, Ann had opened the door, and seeing who it was had stood stifly erect, not sure what to do. She turned on the threshold, looked at Dick who had not yet seen Grace, as if she were about to speak to him, but unable to find him with her eyes, she turned into the room followed by Grace who smiling nonchanantly, said gayly:

"Hello, Dick! I got lonesome for you, so walked all the way over. Ned was horrid this morning. He wouldn't let me have the car, and my horse went lame yesterday. My! But I'm tired!" she sank into a chair.

Ann tried to summon a pleasant expression to her face, but she achieved only a rather vague distortion. Dick offfended by it, said sharply:

"Aren't you going to lay a place for Grace, Ann?" They had been about to sit down to luncheon.

Without a word Ann did as requested, and Grace drew up to the table, eating heartily, laughing and chatting with Dick, who never noticed that Ann ate nothing at all.

The latter watched Grace, saw her use all her little airs and graces, felt that Dick was keenly aware of her, of the physical her, that she so boldly intruded upon him.

She touched him often, and after the meal was over made him give her his lighted cigaret, saying it tasted better because he had started to swoke it.

She looked charming, Ann had to admit. Her face glowed with life and color. She had on a fetching sport dress, stylish shoes, comfortable for walking, and a boy's hat that had sat saucily on her bobbed head lay on the chair beside her.

Ann felt suddenly old, washed out, tired out. Yet she was but a little older than Grace Edmunds; and had been called a beauty. Why was it? She knew it was not her work, although at times it was hard and wearing, it was because of her soul-tiredness, her fears, and anxieties she had aged. Grace was laughing, and in reply to something Dick said, replied:

"Never worry until worry worries you! I don't. You can't keep young and handsome, Dick, and fuss over things.

Come on lazy-bones! I'm going out in the orchard with you. I didn't walk all the way over here to sit in the house, even if Ann is a charming hostess."
